You are invited to be part of a special evening...

Yom Hashoah Holocaust Remembrance Day Service and Program

Sunday, May 1, 2011 - 6:00 PM

Join us for this service with memorial candle lighting and a presentation by our children's choir

Special guest will be Itka Zygmuntowicz

Itka is a survivor of the infamous Auschwitz concentration camp and a member of the Memorial Committee for the Six Million Jewish martyrs of JCRC and the Association of the Jewish Holocaust Survivors in Philadelphia.

Beginning within the barbed wires of two concentration camps, Itka composed poems that touched on her horrifying experiences and thoughts. Unable to write them down for lack of paper and pen, she memorized the poems and wrote them down later. You Only Have What You Give Away is the culmination of nearly 70 years of poems, prose, and rhymes.

This program made possible by the Sauer Family Yom Hashoah Endowment Fund.
