About the Event

The Satell Family Foundation "Diplochat" series provides meeting attendees with the opportunity to have an in-depth conversation with diplomats from around the world. Audience members will have the ability to ask questions and engage with those appointed by their governments to represent their country, skillfully negotiate, and use soft power to maintain political, economic, and social relations on the global stage.

The Council is hosting a discussion about U.S.-Israel relations, featuring remarks from Ambassador Asaf Zamir, Consul General of Israel in New York. Ambassador Zamir has also served as the Tourism Minister of Israel and as Deputy Mayor of Tel Aviv. With time for audience Q&A, the audience will have to opportunity to dive deeper into topics of interest.

The conversation will be facilitated by Lauren Swartz, President & CEO of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

The Diplochat series is named for and dedicated in honor of longtime Trustee and Council supporter, Ed Satell.
