

Youth Forum On Gun Violence

Gun violence is a tragic reality that plagues our local community and beyond. This crisis impacts our youth directly and dramatically. That's why the Southeastern Pennsylvania Coalition of Synagogues to Reduce Gun Violence, a multi-denominational organization, is holding a forum. We aim to provide our students with an opportunity to discuss their concerns and emotions, while simultaneously providing them with helpful tools and resources. The session will be conducted by professional facilitators and faculty. Young voices matter.

There will be a concurrent suicide prevention training for adults. Please join us even if you don't have a young person attending the forum.
