Message from Rabbi Scott Rosenberg

Throughout November, members of the Har Zion Temple community will focus in four different ways we can "Talk Turkey."

The first Shabbat of November is Parshat Noah, the story of Noah, the flood, and the rescue of the animals. I know that that week all of the families in the Noreen Cook Center for Early Childhood Education as well as the students in the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School will talk about different aspects of our responsibility towards the animals with whom we share the earth. And while the turkey was not a featured animal on Noah's Ark (partially because it is native to North America) the turkey is on our minds throughout November given the focus that our American culture places on turkey during the Thanksgiving holiday at the end of the month.

During the second week of November, I hope all of us will be taking our civic responsibility seriously and exercising our right to vote in the Presidential elections. We all know how embattled the campaign up until the election has been. Our two Presidential candidates, Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump (names listed in alphabetical order) have elicited deep emotional responses from our community. No matter which candidate you support, the issues are pronounced and emotions run deep. Our responsibility as Americans is to educate ourselves on the issues and vote for the candidate we feel will best represent your thinking in Washington and beyond. November 8 is a day America will be talking turkey and I can't urge you enough to be a part of that conversation.

The third week of November will have Har Zion talking turkey about Turkey and the important role Turkey plays in the fragile Middle East. Gabriel Mitchell, the U.S. Representative of Mitvim – the Israeli Institute for Regional Foreign Policies, and an expert in Turkey, will be with us as a Scholar in Residence (November 18-19). In addition to talking about Israel, Mr. Mitchell will discuss the tensions in the region and Turkey's role in the complex world of the Middle East. Turkey has been in the news of late because of ISIS and Syria and European Immigration. Turkey plays a vital role in the region and Mr. Mitchell will open our eyes to why we should pay more attention to Turkey.

And if this is not enough turkey for us to digest in November, the last week of the month brings us Thanksgiving, an American holiday where the turkey has become a symbol of gratitude for us. As American Jews, we have much to be grateful for as citizens of this great nation. Thanksgiving is one day on which we can and should join with our neighbors in pausing to express our appreciation for the ability to live in the land of the free and the home of the brave. God bless America and may our turkey talk throughout the month lead us to gratitude for all of the blessings we enjoy.

A Special Message from Rabbi Rosenberg

The clergy members at Har Zion Temple feel privileged to be included in your life cycle events. Hospital or sick visits and offering congratulations on milestones such as weddings, engagements, special birthdays, or anniversaries are some of the things that bind us together as a community.

But we cannot reach out if we do not know! Be sure to keep us informed if anyone is sick or injured. Share with us upcoming milestone events and the joy of new children or grandchildren. See us at services, call the synagogue, or email clergy administrator Laurie Albert, lalbert@harziontemple.org, so we can offer support or a mazel tov.

SISTERHOOD . . .

Thanksgiving

Message from Susan Kochman, Sisterhood Co-President

Both of my parents were born in New York. And as most families then and today, we traveled to New York for all holidays, including Thanksgiving. My sister Sheila, the older one, remembers my father shlepping the suitcases on the bus so we could spend time with our grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins. As the years passed our customs changed and as adults we formed our own very own Thanksgivings.

Even when my family lived out of Philadelphia we came together to celebrate most holidays. Neither rain nor sleet nor snow could keep us apart. After all, who wouldn't want to spend time around the table with friends and family arguing about politics, Israel, and sports? And don't forget the Thanksgiving Day parade and football game after dinner.

Over the years the players have changed, some have passed, some have moved, and relationships have dissolved. There is always room for more!

However, Jewish Thanksgivings do tend to differ from the traditional ones. All the food is Kosher, no buttermilk biscuits! Grandparents ask, "Why you are not married yet and giving them great grandchildren?" The little ones run around and the teenagers wonder when they can get away to be texting again. And when the wine runs out there is always Manischewitz.

And sure Thanksgiving is about giving thanks for America, but as Jews, we also like to give thanks for the land of Israel. After all, it's our homeland!

While a Jewish Thanksgiving does exhibit certain traits that are slightly different from traditional Thanksgiving celebrations, the overall holiday experience remains the same. There is plenty of good food, laughter and time spent with loved ones. What could be better?

Finally, I would like to end with A Thanksgiving Prayer.

By Rabbi Naomi Levy

For the laughter of the children

For my own life breath,

For the abundance of food on this table,

For the ones who prepared this sumptuous feast,

For the roof over our heads,

The clothes on our backs,

For our health,

For our wealth of blessings,

For this opportunity to celebrate with family and friends,

For the freedom to pray these words,

Without fear,

In any language,

In any faith,

In this great country,

Whose landscape is as vast and beautiful as her inhabitants.

Thank You, God, for giving us all these. Amen.

MEN'S CLUB . . .

Har Zion Men's Club
We've Got It Covered

Message from
Joshua Klein, Chairman,
Har Zion Men's Club Golf Outing
and Softball Team

Shana Tova! My name is Joshua Klein and about 13 years ago, Steve Mendelsohn, a former Society Hill neighbor of mine, and current Har Zion member, said his Main Line softball team needed a player for a Sunday morning game. So I went to play that day for his shul, Har Zion Temple, in the Sunday Synagogue League and ever since then, Sundays from April until August have become my norm.

I wasn't even a member of Har Zion at the time. My youngest daughter went to summer camp and kindergarten at Har Zion. And, while my family had lived on the Main Line for four years, I was still a member at the Center City congregation where I grew up. But Har Zion eventually became my new synagogue leading to Minyan on Friday mornings, a short stint on the synagogue board, and many men's club events continued to fill my calendar.

Fast-forward to 2012, when Scott Plavner, founder of that Main Line softball league including the Har Zion team, threw the equipment bag into my car and said it was my team now.

The rebuilding of the team began. Half the players, like myself, are now north of 50 years old. We needed – and still need – a youth movement on the team. With young members like Ben Fetterman, Ken Brownstein, Bryan Jacobs, James Freeman, two generations of Fuimans and Mendelsohns, Ari Charlestein joining the “mature” Bob Beckman, Roy Stander, Steven Lewis, Ken Martin, Scott Farbstein, and Michael Solomon, Har Zion puts a competitive team on the field. We have to get the younger members involved as they are not only the future of the team, but the future of Har Zion's Men's Club and all the activities surrounding the shul. In case you don't know, Scott Fink, Jeffrey Barrack, and Ken Brownstein are active members of our club too.

There are some very interesting people to meet. You will get some religion. You will get some networking, and you might even have some fun.

In this busy world, “old” guys like me are anxious to see who will take the leadership roles in the future. There are young leaders who are members of Har Zion that can – and should – participate in Men's Club events four or five times a year. Start by coming out to play softball when our season starts again in 2017, or come to a Friday morning Minyan, which includes lox and bagels every Friday. I organized and ran our annual golf outing this past September, with about 40 players on the links at Bala Golf Club for a phenomenal day of golf (breakfast, buffet lunch, and golf carts are included) as we raised money for Har Zion and Camp Ramah. Won't you join us next year? The congregation certainly has more than 40 people who play golf!

This month we will host our annual Café Dessert Series at The Dairy Café on Sunday evening, November 6 at 7 PM, featuring Rabbi Jonathan Porath, which is open to the whole Har Zion community, is free, and the delectable desserts and beverages of The Dairy Café will be featured too! Please respond to Jack EDUCATION . . .

Hebrew Language Instruction for the Primary Grades

Message from

Rabbi Shawn SimonHazani,
Director of Lifelong Learning

As this article arrives in your mailbox we, at the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School, will be embarking on a renewed journey to educate our children more effectively and more comprehensively in Hebrew language. We do so because we hold on to the belief that being literate in basic Hebrew will enable the learner to access levels of understanding of Jewish text unattainable in translation and will empower them to be more functionally literate in the practices of Jewish life both at home and in the synagogue. Of course one of the great debates in Hebrew instruction today is whether we should be teaching our students to communicate in modern Hebrew with their Israeli counterparts or whether we continue to teach traditional literacy of text and prayer. Ideally, we would teach both but sadly, within the time restraints that govern our busy lives we must make this choice. At JFGRS the decision has been made to continue to provide all of our students with a solid foundation in site reading and the ability to decode and understand traditional sources they will encounter in synagogue and at home.

With that decision made we must then design a program that affords us every opportunity to maximize the learning potential. To that end, we will be creating additional smaller reading groups within each grade. These reading groups will be more homogeneously leveled so that students with similar levels of language acquisition will be learning alongside each other. In the earliest years (k-2) we have dedicated an extra period of instruction to build a more solid footing upon which to build in future years. And finally, we have restructured our staff instruction to create a dedicated cadre of Hebrew language instructors who will work with multiple groups throughout the week rather than have one teacher responsible for the Hebraic and Judaic content of each group.

In the coming weeks and months we will be addressing the content of the Hebrew language curriculum to align it with our current goals. We will establish measurable and attainable outcomes for the classes and individual students and begin to develop formative and summative assessments of student learning to help us to continually better ourselves and continue our progress towards working with the congregation and our parents to educate knowledgeable young Jews who are ready to accept the mantle of leadership in the next generation.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or comments about our Hebrew instruction at the JFGRS!

Visit the Yofi group page on HZT Connect for more info on these and other programs.

Shabbat Sha-Blue Jeans Friday, November 4, 5:30 PM

Rabbi Allen leads our youngest congregants in a fun, relaxed age-appropriate Shabbat service followed by complimentary dinner.

Socializing for Social Justice Wednesday, November 16, 3:15 PM

Join us in helping to beautify someone else's Thanksgiving meal. We will come together to have a snack, share a story and decorate cards to be included in our Thanksgiving meal packages. These packages will be delivered to needy members of the Philadelphia Jewish community.

Giving Thanks

Message from Debbie Folz,
Early Childhood Education Director

During the month of November we have the opportunity to reflect and give thanks. When we think of Thanksgiving we usually think of food, family, friends and football. That is great! However, we also want our children in the NCCECE to think of thanks, tzedukah and mitzvot. What can we do to teach our children these values?

Is there any better way of giving thanks then giving back? Did you know that each November the NCCECE in conjunction with Har Zion's Tikkun Olam committee participates in a Food Drive that distributes Thanksgiving baskets to those in need? During the month of November you can go to the JRA and help package food, cook a meal for someone who is sick or just had a baby, visit a nursing home, or have your child invite a new friend over for a play date.

Here at the NCCECE our teachers ask the children what they are thankful for. Start a new tradition at your Thanksgiving dinner – go around the table asking each guest what they are thankful for. Nothing is too small. Every Monday and Friday at Havdalah and Erev Shabbat Services, I ask the children what they are thankful for and the answers range from my whole family, to the world, to my toys. Definitely all are acceptable answers!

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, count your blessings, be grateful and make someone's "day" by writing them a note or by calling and thanking them – perhaps a former teacher. You will be even happier and so will they!

Har Zion Temple Announces Our Fall Madregot Fundraiser December 4 and 5

Jay Gorodetzer Photography will bring his photos to Har Zion on Sunday, December 4 and Monday, December 5 to photograph your family or individual corporate portrait.

A minimum of 20% of all sales will be donated to benefit Madregot, the Special Needs Program of the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School.

Jay Gorodetzer Photography has extended a special discounted price for this event:

- Individual Corporate Portrait: $99 (Includes a disc of two edited poses)
- Family Portrait: $125 (Includes one 8" x 10" print)

Additional prints, photoproducts and digital downloads may be purchased online at www.JayGorodetzer.com. A new gallery will be posted online once the photos from sessions have been edited. Checks made payable to Jay Gorodetzer.

Prints of your family portraits will make great presents for grandparents and seasons' greeting cards. Your professional portrait can be used to promote you and your business in print and online, never discount the value of a professional portrait for your LinkedIn profile picture!

Visit our website calendar to reserve a time for your photo session on Sunday (12/4) or Monday (12/5) between the hours of 9 AM – 6 PM.

About Jay Gorodetzer:

After a 20-year career at The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jay has established Jay Gorodetzer Photography to serve the photography needs of Families, Educational Institutions, Businesses and Organizations. Through his achievements at the newspaper as a photojournalist, photo editor and page designer, Jay has learned the precious nuances that produce the most meaningful images for a given project. In addition to capturing beautiful memories at B'nai Mitzvahs, Jay Gorodetzer Photography provides photo coverage for publications, press releases, marketing collateral and archives. Jay Gorodetzer Photography is based in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and is available for corporate, sports, portraits, news or other assignments on location – near and far.

The Kozalchic Affair

Itzak Shaked, the son of two Holocaust survivors, lived an average life in Israel as an industrialist until learning the true identity of his father, Yakov Kozalchic. Known as "The Warden of the Death Block," Yakov was a Jewish Kapo in Auschwitz who sacrificed his life to save as many of his fellow brethren as he could. Separated from his wife and children, who were imprisoned in Treblinka, Yakov was sent to Auschwitz, where he managed to save himself from the gas chambers through his connections. However, he was unable to escape his placement as Jewish Kapo of Block 11. Now 68 year-old Itzak embarks on an unforgettable journey to recover his father's past and meet the people whose lives Yakov changed forever.

Directed by Ron Ninio | Documentary Feature | Israel, Poland | 2015
| 53 min | Hebrew with English subtitles

And Then, Violence

Rebecca, a French law student living with her parents in the heart of Paris, runs out to the kosher supermarket to buy wine for a dinner party. However, after the terror attacks on Charlie Hebdo and the recent anti-Semitic attacks occurring in her own neighborhood, Rebecca is far from at ease navigating the streets surrounding her home. Official Selection of the San Francisco, Atlanta, and Seattle Jewish Film Festivals, AND THEN, VIOLENCE paints a vivid picture of the complicated reality of anti-Semitism and the subsequent fear Jews experience in Paris every day.

Directed by Jordan Goldnadel | Narrative Short | France | 2016 | 15 min | French with English subtitles

SHARE YOUR SIMHA!

We encourage you to sponsor an Extended Kiddush to celebrate any special simha, such as a Bar/Bat Mitzvah anniversary, baby naming, Aufruf, birthday, anniversary or graduation, etc. You may also want to consider contributing to our Shabbat Fund in honor of your special occasion. For more information, contact Shonnie Lebovitz, ext 106 or slebovitz@harziontemple.org.

HJT Connect

What is it? Why should we sign up? Is it hard to use?

HJT Connect is our new communication platform offering our Members many ways to connect with Har Zion Temple. The MOST important offering is that signing up will ensure that you know about all of the events that are important to you in our building and community.

When you sign up (Quick Start Guide below!) you are asked to join Groups. These Groups ensure that you get the information that is important to you via email. Simply check the boxes of the Groups which interest you and that will be how we know what to send you! For example, you may want to know all about our Adult Education offerings, but not get notices about the Religious School, because you have no school-aged children.

This new customized email service will help our communications department to be sure that each of our Members receives information about upcoming events in a timely manner. We will continue to send e-Highlights, our weekly email, as we have done in the past, but HJT Connect allows us to send much more targeted communications. Another great feature of HJT Connect is the calendar. Now through the HJT Connect calendar, which is linked to our website HarZionTemple.org, any one, whether or not they are signed up for HJT Connect, can RSVP for our events. Once you have signed up for HJT Connect, you don't have to enter your contact information into every RSVP form. It will auto fill the form for you. However, if you don't sign up for HJT Connect, no problem. The system will still allow you to manually enter your information to RSVP. As always, you can also call us at 610-667-5000.

You heard about it from the bima on the High Holy Days,
Maybe you heard about it in our hallways,
Perhaps it was the schools or maybe from Norman or Ebby, but no matter where you heard about it
we promise that you're ready!

What about paying for events? We are moving towards the 21st century and offering event attendees an option to pay online with their credit card via the secure ticketing website, Ticketleap.com. Any event which requires payment features a link to the Ticketleap website to pay. Ticketleap is a cutting edge ticketing website featuring the strongest digital security currently available. If you are more comfortable, feel free to drop a check at the front desk, or simply note in your RSVP that we should bill your account. As always, you can also call us at 610-667-5000.

Quick Start Guide

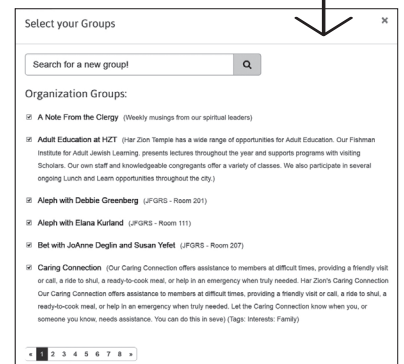

Step 1:
Visit HarZionTemple.org and click the link at the top of the page.

Step 2:
Click "I don't have an account yet". Follow the prompts to set up your account!

Step 3:
Select the Groups which you would like to receive information from and click "Save." You're done!

Too quick for you? No problem! Call or email Ebby, our Director of Communications, to set up a time when she can walk you through the process! egoldsmith@harziontemple.org • 610.667.5000

Report on Eshel Avraham, Our Sister Congregation

By Shirley Swinger

On September 15, I had the pleasure of attending the 40th anniversary celebration of our sister synagogue, Eshel Avraham in Beer Sheva, Israel. As you know, Har Zion Temple was the first to adopt a Conservative synagogue in Israel and through the years we have continued to raise funds and support their efforts to bring Conservative Judaism to the Negev.

In recent years, Eshel Avraham's Educational Center has become a focus for communal, religious, educational, and cultural life. It serves the needs of a diversified population; singles, families, young people, senior citizens, and new immigrants from Russia and Latin America. Their members welcome new immigrants and help them become absorbed into Israeli society.

Their membership has reached 200 families who not only attend services regularly, but have become involved in welcoming Shabbat at local homes for the aged and also providing food for the needy. There are 200 children in the preschool population, and plans to open a new nursery program in one of the suburbs of Beer Sheva with the help of the municipality. Each year, Eshel Avraham traditionally recognizes the new soldier among the children of the congregation and maintains contact with them throughout their military service and provides them with spiritual and moral support, especially during holidays.

The mayor of Beer Sheva recognizes the asset of this congregation that helps forge a sense of mutual responsibility and communal care for the diverse population in the city. I truly believe that this congregation is in the forefront of the Conservative movement in the Negev and we should be proud of their accomplishments.

I also had the opportunity to present a gift to Eshel Avraham from the Sisterhood of Har Zion Temple.

Judy Swinger Freed, Shirley Swinger and Rabbi Mauricio Balter.

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.

HAR ZION ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

The Har Zion Temple Endowment Program helps to secure our economic future through the creation of a stable financial income source.

- 1. Restricted Endowment Funds: Provide for specific needs of the Congregation as predetermined by the donor and the President of the Congregation in consultation with the Clergy, professional staff and the Chairman of the Endowment Fund Committee.
- 2. Unrestricted Endowment Funds: Provide general support for the synagogue's educational, religious and cultural programs, as well as the maintenance of the building and grounds.
- 3. Scholarship Funds: Support the Synagogue's and the Religious Schools' educational programs as well as financial scholarship assistance.
- 4. Family Celebration and Memorial Funds: Provide for general synagogue purposes including special programs and events.
- 5. The General Endowment Fund: Provides general support to the congregation.

The President of the Congregation, The Chairman of the Endowment Fund Committee, Congregational Officers, Clergy and the Executive Director are available to provide additional information about endowed gift opportunities.

THE SHABBAT SUITE

AT LANKENAU MEDICAL CENTER

PROVIDING COMFORT

When you or a loved one needs the care or services of a hospital, it's comforting to know that a premier medical center in your region offers a peaceful space for families to observe Shabbat and holidays.

At Lankenau Medical Center, our specialized medical and surgical teams are skilled in providing advanced care. We also understand the importance of helping patients and families through their physical, emotional, and spiritual journey.

Our comfortable and convenient Shabbat Suite features:

- Two private bedrooms, each with two beds and a private bathroom with shower*
- 24/7 private kitchen and stocked pantry
- Spacious lounge and private space for minyan

At Lankenau, providing compassionate care has been a tradition for more than 150 years.

To learn more about Shabbat services or to visit the Shabbat Suite at Lankenau Medical Center, call 484.476.2020 or visit mainlinehealth.org/shabbat. We look forward to helping ensure a comfortable Shabbat environment.

WE MAKE SURE YOUR LOSS IS COMPLETELY FOUND.

Whether you are looking to return home or to return to business as usual, MLA Claims believes that in order to "Get More" from the insurance claims process, you need to "Get More" from your professional. Getting more starts with more personal attention from our senior staff on day one, and everyday thereafter. It continues with a thorough evaluation process that reveals the true scope of your loss, and offers a relentless pursuit of the settlement you deserve.

Headquartered in suburban Philadelphia, MLA Claims is one of the nation's most accomplished property loss consulting firms. Our specialists have experience with all types of insured property, business interruption and extra expense losses.
