One Community. Many Voices.

On Sunday, February 25 the Lower Merion Area Hebrew High (LMAHH) hosted a program held at Har Zion Temple to discuss and process the recent school shooting in Parkland, Florida.

LMAHH students and parents were joined via video conference by Jared Block, survivor of the shooting, his parents Gayle and Josh Block; U.S. Rep. Ted Deutch of Florida who represents Parkland; and John Wood Jr. of Better Angels, an organization seeking to unify people from different parts of the political spectrum.

The goal of the program was to not focus on a specific political party, agenda or issue, but rather to emphasize coming together as a community who cares about the safety of our children and participate in a civil, productive and respectful conversation.

Har Zion Temple is a partner synagogue in the LMAHH Program. Participating synagogues also include Adath Israel, Beth Am Israel and Beth Hillel-Beth El. Norman Einhorn, our Director of Member Engagement and Communications, serves as LMAHH's Director.

Passover in a Different Light

Message from Hazzan Vogel

You don't have to go to synagogue or even own a Jewish calendar to pick up on the fact that Passover is fast approaching. Despite the fact that there is the potential for plenty of wallop left to this winter, the true tell-tale signs that Hag Ha-aviv – the holiday of spring is on its way are evident the moment one walks into a supermarket. The shelves have already been fully stocked for Hag ha-Matzot, "the holiday of unleavened bread" for a number of weeks. Well before we've baked our hamantaschen for Purim – much less consumed the last of the mishlo'ach manot – the push towards Pesach has begun. The proximity of "Zeman Heiruteinu" – "the season of our liberation" is, for many, inspiring dread. For them it's feeling more like a countdown to serving time in bondage.

It's true that a great deal of planning goes into observing any holiday, and Passover certainly does take effort. Beyond the cleaning and cooking, the hype and pressure surrounding this eight-day festival and the Seder in particular, creates feelings of anxiety and inadequacy in many a household. Many sources tell us that Passover is the most celebrated of the Jewish holidays. Yet, as with so much in our general culture, once we latch on to a good thing, we tend to go overboard. The ever-expanding aisles of OU/P food products at the grocer seems to suggest that our celebrations will be lacking without the latest and greatest synthetically-manufactured-non-food-substance-yet-strictly-kosher-for-Passover foods. The demands for planning the guest list for the holiday, what do to at the Seder and simply "getting it all done" and can overwhelm. One wonders, "What happened to the Liberation and Freedom?"

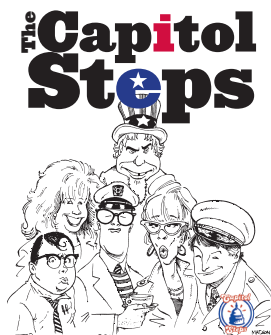

Wouldn't it be wise to take a breath and think clearly about the true essence of Passover? The Jewish calendar is set so that the holidays will always occur at specific seasons of the year. It is (Continued on page 7)

PASSOVER . . .

Kashrut for Pesah

Following is a summary of the decisions of the Committee on Jewish Law and Standards (CJLS) of the Rabbinical Assembly pertaining to Passover foods, dishes, and utensils. Kosher le-Pesah labels that do not bear the name of a rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or which are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting your rabbi.

Prohibited foods include the following: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffees containing cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol.

Most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods

מכירת חמץ

Sell Your Hametz

An integral part of the pre-Passover planning involves the selling of one's hametz. According to Jewish law, we are supposed to rid ourselves from all hametz and utensils which have been used over the course of the year during Passover. The procedure is simple. We follow the custom of selling our hametz and utensils to a non-Jew. In this manner, the Biblical injunction regarding hametz is respected.

In order to facilitate the proceedings, kindly complete the form below and return it to Laurie Albert in the synagogue office.

I will sell your hametz on your behalf. If you would prefer to donate it, Rabbi Shawn is collecting unopened food cans or boxes between February 20 – March 25 as part of Ella Goodbinder's Bat Mitzvah Project. These items will go to the Narberth Food Bank.

Let me take this opportunity, while well in advance, to wish you and yours an enjoyable and happy Passover.

Rabbi Scott Rosenberg, Senior Rabbi

I hereby authorize Rabbi Rosenberg to sell my hametz. I understand that the hametz will no longer be in my possession from Friday, March 30 at 8:30 AM until Saturday, April 7 at 8:30 PM.

Name _____

Address _____

Note: If there are others for whom you wish to sell hametz, please provide names and addresses and their authorization.

(kitniyot) to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans and peas; however, string beans are permitted). The CJLS has ruled unanimously that peanuts and peanut oil are permissible. Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid, the use of legumes in a form other than their natural state, for example: corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult a member of the clergy for guidance in the use of these products.

PERMITTED FOODS: A. The following foods require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: all baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah); canned or bottled fruit juices (These juices are often clarified with kitniyot which are not listed among the ingredients. However, if one knows there are no such agents, the juice may be purchased prior to Pesah without a kosher le-Pesah label); wine; vinegar; liquor; oils; dried fruits; candy; chocolate flavored milk; ice cream; yogurt, and soda.

B. The following processed foods (canned, bottled or frozen) require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased during Pesah: milk, butter, juices, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in Category C.

C. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (however, be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea (not herbal tea); salt; pepper, natural spices; frozen fruit juices with no additives; frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes see above); milk; butter; cottage cheese; frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives).

D. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (for legumes see above), eggs, fresh fish, and fresh meat.

DETERGENTS: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher le-Pesah label.

MEDICINE: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guidelines should be followed: if the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used on Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult the clergy. In all cases, capsules are preferable to pills.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS: The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

A. EARTHENWARE (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

B. METAL (wholly made of metal) UTENSILS USED IN FIRE (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots should not be used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

C. OVENS AND RANGES: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be put through the self-cleaning cycle according to the manufacturer's instructions. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens.

Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned, and then two cups of water should be placed inside. Then turn the oven on until one cup of water has boiled away. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered for Pesah.

D. GLASSWARE: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours. The other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah, or putting them through a dishwasher.

Glass cookware: There is a difference of opinion as to whether this item must be kashered. One opinion is that it must be kashered. After a thorough cleansing, there should be water boiled in it, which will overflow the rim. The other opinion is that only a thorough cleansing is required. Glass bakeware, like metal bakeware, may not be kashered.

E. DISHWASHER: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. TABLES, CLOSETS, AND COUNTERS: If used with hametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. KITCHEN SINK: A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning and then pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

I. HAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS: Non-Passover dishes, pots, and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked in order to prevent accidental use.

Har Zion after Dark

WEDNESDAY NIGHT ADULT ED SERIES
6:20-7 PM - light fare and refreshments
7-8 PM - Classes

March 14, 21, and 28

Dr. Ely Levine – *Passover in Egypt, Passover in Babylon, Passover in the Main Line

Did the Israelites drink four cups of wine at the first Passover? The seder we know now took its shape among the rabbis of the Talmud, but it has continued to be transformed over the centuries. The innovation has always come about a way to rediscover meaning in traditional ritual. In this class we will look at the history of how Jews have celebrated Passover, as a way of reigniting meaning in our own celebrations!

Juliet Spitzer – *Guard My Tongue, It's Out of Control! Mastering Our Thoughts So They Don't Master Us

We will begin with a look at what Jewish texts say about the power of speech, and familiarize ourselves with the basic laws of l'shon ha'ra (the evil tongue/gossip). Recognizing speech as an extension of our thoughts, we will consider a potential cure for l'shon ha'ra, namely drawing on the sparks and guidance provided through Mussar, the Jewish discipline that helps us fine-tune our ethical conduct.

Aviva Habib – *Hebrew Music and Poetry - Cultural Development

A closer look into how Israeli culture has developed over the last 70 years.

May 9, 16, 23, and 30

Dr. Melissa R. Klapper, Professor of History and Director of Women's & Gender Studies, Rowan University

The Promise and Peril of American Jewish History

This four part series will explore American Jewish history in all its variety, from the colonial period through the modern day. The series will move both chronologically and thematically through American Jewish history, with a particular focus on social, cultural, and religious life.

Rabbi Moriah SimonHazani – *Jewish Food and Cooking

This class is both for the body and the soul. We will learn how to prepare essential Israeli comfort foods. While preparing the meal we will focus on Jewish approaches toward food. This will give us an opportunity to fully nourish ourselves and enjoy the company, the sustenance, and the intellectual stimulation.

Norman Einhorn – *Trending News and Events in Israel Today

This class tackles those topics talked about at the water cooler and dinner table. Past classes have dealt with BDS, Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, Anti-Semitism, Immigration, US Elections, Israeli Advocacy and the future of American synagogues.

not an accident that Passover comes in the spring. Just as spring marks the rebirth of the earth, Passover tells the story of a people who are oppressed, degraded and threatened with extinction bursting out of Egypt into a new life and on a journey to a land flowing with milk and honey. As with spring, the messages of Passover are about rebirth and hope. The natural world shows us that the dead-appearing and dormant tree will blossom again into life. So too, change and renewal are intrinsic to human nature.

The story of Passover – our people's emergence from a narrow place (Mitzrayim, Hebrew for Egypt, means narrow) – is not just history, but rather an event that we did participate in and continue to participate in. As it says in the Haggadah: "In every generation each person should feel as though he or she were redeemed from Egypt." The story is so critical to the Jewish people that it is repeatedly referred to in our liturgy. (The shema concludes with the passage "I, the Lord, am your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God...") Passover is the paradigm that teaches us that God stands with those who are oppressed. The redemption from slavery and exodus from Egypt serve as a model that future redemptions are possible.

Next time we're feeling constricted by the commercial/societal pressures to produce the "perfect" holiday and Seder we should remember these very wise words: "The seder is really not about re-experiencing the slavery and redemption of the Hebrews. We all have our own Egypt to leave, and we do leave "Egypt." It is not a re-experience, which cannot really be, but an experience. It is not theater, but life."

TIKKUN OLAM . . .

Our Community Moved Mountains!

Message from Norma Dworkin & Melissa Sayer, Co-chairs

Har Zion's MLK day of service was a powerful example of the good we can do together! There were volunteer opportunities for young and old which highlighted the best of collaboration across several constituent groups. The shul was teaming with energy and love.

The mountain of donated items was sorted by over 200 people who prepared boxes and boxes of sorely needed clothing, toiletries, home goods and pet supplies for the following charities (not an inclusive list):

Philadelphia Veterans Comfort House, Nationalities Service Center, Career Wardrobe , Philadelphia AIDS Thrift, HIAS, Golden Slipper, New Horizons Senior Center, Maternity Care Coalition of Philadelphia, Home At Last Dog Rescue, Narberth Food Bank

A sample of our accomplishments

250 meals prepared by Cook for a Friend (donated to Klein Life Center), 40 + boxes of books packed for Philly Reads, Stuffed animals too numerous to count, collected for children in need, scarves, hats, blankets, baby sweaters knitted by Shul Stickers, 100s of bras sent to Free the Girls, 100s of crafts created for senior centers, numerous letters to IDF and American soldiers sent, 50 pom pom hats created by our children, 40 large bags of clothing to Career Wardrobe, 80 boxes to Philadelphia AIDS Thrift , blood donations from a large number of individuals

We had celebrated author, Michelle Edwards inspire us with the reading of her book, A Hat for Mrs. Goldman: A Story About Knitting and Love, and if that wasn't enough you just needed to visit the dogs from Home At Last Rescue and get a puppy kiss to feel the love!

We hope each year we can broaden our reach and continue to make Har Zion's Day of Service a fitting tribute to the legacy of Martin Luther King.

Blood Drive Report by Shirley Swinger

Our January Red Cross blood drive this year on Martin Luther King Day was a success due to the many donors and hard work of our callers and my wonderful co-chair-Marilyn Becker.

Thanks to our callers, Barbara Boroff, Barbara Berkowitz, Ruth Chacker, Janice Katz, Charlotte Muchnick, Gladys Shubin, Judy Weinberger and Maxine Waxman.

The efforts of our donors have helped boost the community blood supply and ensure hospital patients have the lifesaving blood they need.

HAZAAC Har Zion Active Adults Club

Science and Religion – Past, Present and Future

By Gerald Spector, HAZAAC Chair

Science and religion, though often at odds, have much in common. Both seek answers to questions that seem unanswerable, questions such as: Where do we come from and where are we going? Through the ages all religions have attributed the apparently inexplicable to supernatural acts of gods. Science, on the other hand, has sought natural explanations that do not depend on gods. The interaction of these two approaches is the subject of Dan Brown's latest novel Origin.

In this novel, the central character, Edmond Kirsch, a computer science genius and self-proclaimed futurist and atheist is about to announce a discovery that he claims: "will not shake your [religion's] foundations. It will shatter them." In the introduction to his announcement, Kirsch cites the rapid evolution of man compared to that of other species as one of the clues that led him to his discovery.

At the Wednesday, March 14, meeting of the Har Zion Active Adults Club (HAZAAC), Rabbi Shawn Simon-Hazani and Norman Einhorn will review Dan Brown's Origin and lead an interactive discussion of its themes. There will be a three-course buffet lunch at 11:30 AM; program will be at 1:00 PM. Cost is $5.00 per person, pay at the door. Reservations for lunch are REQUIRED. Please call Harriet Schiffer at (610) 667-5000 by Monday, March 12 to make reservations for lunch.

Come eat, come learn, come connect, come home.

Presented by the Sisterhood of Har Zion Temple and the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School

SISTERHOOD . . .

Celebrate the Season

Message from Susan Kochman, Sisterhood Co-President

Welcome to March. We have much to celebrate this month. Jewish holidays include Purim (fun) and Passover (work and family). March is also Women's History Month, Colorectal Awareness Month, Brain Injury Awareness Month, International Mirth Month, National Ethics Awareness Month and my favorite, International Expect Success Month.

As women, I believe we can relate to all of the above. We can use these "holidays" to celebrate our Jewish beliefs, our health, our history and our hope for success. And perhaps we can remind others of the importance of ethics and fun! I'm not sure what the two have in common, but you know that girls just want to have fun.

It's the time of year when nature starts to renew itself. If we're lucky we will have weather that will allow the leaves and the grass to start growing. Sunday, March 11 the clocks are turned forward. If you ask me, that is the real beginning of spring. The extra hour of light brings the hope of long, warm sunny days.

There is a theory that maybe the Exodus as we know it did not occur. According to archeologists, there is no reliable evidence that the Exodus took place. When I first heard about the possibility that this huge event might not have happened, I said, "Yes, no cleaning, no changing the kitchen and no Seder." But then I reconsidered. What would happen to our family Seder? What would happen to all our complaining, our cleaning and more importantly, seeing the family repeat history. The Four Questions, now led by teens or sometimes the oldest at our table, the Ten Plagues, looking foolish wearing our masks, are things that we share as families and friends. These memories are a part of family history. It is also a time to remember those who are no longer sitting at our table.

To help us try to figure this out, Alan Zweibel, author of For This We Left Egypt, is coming Wednesday, March 7 at 7 PM. Alan is a former writer "Saturday Night Live" and "It's Garry Shandling's Show." Open a Book...Open Your Mind is sponsoring this event.

After March, April looks like a spring breeze. We celebrate some serious remembrance days, Holocaust Remembrance Day, Israel Remembrance Day and Israel Independence Day. On the lighter side its National Humor Month, Stress Awareness Month, International Fun at Work Day, Husband Appreciation Day and most important, Volunteer Recognition Day.

We all know that Sisterhood is an all-volunteer organization and would be nothing without all of our wonderful women. There would be no cookies for Kiddush, no Gift Box, no wine sales etc, etc. And most important, no Open a Book...Open Your Mind. The week of April 22 brings four authors to close out our year. Please check the schedule. Hope to see you at our events.

We also hosted our members to another well-attended dinner meeting to assemble the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle cartons, so that they could be mailed out in March to all members of Har Zion. ## At the NCCECE, We're All Winners!

Message from Debbie Folz,
Director of Early Childhood Education

As I write this I do not know whether the Philadelphia Eagles or the New England Patriots are the winners of Super Bowl LII. However, what I do know is that the children and staff at the NCCECE helped bring the NFC Championship winners, the Philadelphia Eagles, to victory.

Ever since October 30 the children of the NCCECE have sung the Eagles Fight Song with spirit and enthusiasm. On Thursday, January 18, the NCCECE had an Eagles Pep Rally. Not one, not two, but three television stations came to video our children sing their hearts out. Whether the Eagles won or lost the Super Bowl, we are all winners!

Update: As we go to press, the Eagles are the Super Bowl Champs!

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.
