INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS

Israeli Startup Gets Fda-Approval for a Stent to Help Sinusitis Sufferers

Millions of people worldwide suffer from chronic sinusitis, an inflammation of the sinuses that is caused by infection or allergy, which results in nasal congestion, face pain and headaches. When drug treatments don't work, functional endoscopic sinus surgery is often performed to increase the flow of air to the nose and sinuses, to improve drainage and remove any diseased tissue. But, because of scarring and returning inflammation, some 30% of these operations fail. The Israeli startup that has developed the stent said that the US Food and Drug Administration has approved a first-of-its-kind nasal implant that aims to dramatically reduce the number of operations for millions who suffer from chronic sinusitis, or inflamed sinuses. Teachings from A Partner in Holiness by Rabbi Jonathan Slater – Bo (Vol 1, p175)
*What do you sense is the difference between your speech in Torah and prayer and the rest of your talking?
Do you think that there should be any connection between these two realms of expression?
How might you make your secular expression into Torah and prayer – without becoming mute or unable to engage in normal conversation?*

RABBI JONATHAN SLATER

Shifting from Performance to Practice: What Are We Doing When We 'Do Jewish'?

An introduction to the idea of Jewish practice as making "unifications" – internally, with others and the world; to speak about what it means to engage in "prayer as practice;" and living a life of intentionality as the goal of Jewish practice.

FRIDAY EVENING

"Shabbat As Incubation" – During 6 PM Services

Shabbat can be a time in which what we've done in the past week is transformed and raised up, allowing us to enter the coming week with energy and determination. We will reflect on the previous week, and sing our way into Shabbat.

"To Live Torah Today" – 8 PM following Joy of Shabbat Dinner*

*What is the purpose of our Jewish religious practice? Of course it is to preserve tradition, and to fulfill the mitzvot.
But, what are the mitzvot for? We will investigate together one way to answer this question.*

Join us for the Joy of Shabbat dinner and stay for the lecture.

All ages welcome – $10/adult, $5/child under 13

RSVP by the Monday, February 5, 610-667-5000 or hzt@harziontemple.org or at harziontemple.ticketleap.com

A small service fee will be charged for online reservations.

SATURDAY MORNING

"What is Prayer?" – Following Kiddush

Prayer is a central component of Jewish religious life. But when "going to services" is all that we know of prayer, it may feel alien, far from our own hearts. How else might we conceive of prayer, and find it in our own lives?

SUNDAY MORNING

"Prayer as Practice" – Following 9 AM Services, during breakfast

What do we have to do to cultivate a personal prayer practice? How might doing so change how we understand, find our place in and seek satisfaction from our communal worship?

Rabbi Slater's books are available in the Landau Gift Box.

Speakers - Israel@70

Thursday, January 18, lunch at 12 PM, lecture at 1 PM

Rabbi Arie Hasit - From Talking to a Wall to Building Bridges: The Quest for Jewish Pluralism in Israel

With the collapse of the Kotel Compromise Agreement, the continued monopoly of the Ultra-Orthodox Rabbinate, and a series of disparaging remarks by Israeli government ministers, it sometimes seems like fighting for religious pluralism is a constant battle. At the same time, Conservative rabbis and community leaders on the ground are finding new ways to build bridges to Israelis thirsty for an open-minded approach to Judaism. Come join Rabbi Arie Hasit, the founding rabbi of a new Masorti community in the town of Mazkeret Batya, to learn about the challenges and opportunities of creating a dynamic community in Israel that celebrates pluralism.

Wednesday, January 31, Nosh 6:30-7 PM, Class 7-8:15 PM

Rachel Korazim - On a Silver Platter - The Birth of an Iconic Text
Among the many beautiful literary works created in Israel, there are a few that acquired an iconic position. Of those, Alderman's "The Silver Platter," is in a unique position as the ritual text of commemoration for soldiers fallen for the defense of the state. It is recited in ceremonies all over Israel every Yom Hazikaron and is included in many siddurim. This session will explore the circumstances and events that brought about the composition of this outstanding text. We will study the poem in depth uncovering references to the past and prophetic visions of the future for the State of Israel.

Thursday, February 1, Lunch and Class 10-12:15 PM

Rachel Korazim - 1967 - Anxiety - Euphoria - Concern
When thinking about the 1967 "Six Days War" retrospectively, there is often times a dichotomy between those who mainly remember a glorious victory, the unification of Jerusalem, the liberation of the Old City and the Western Wall. Others will focus their thoughts and reflections on the fifty years of occupation, the controversy surrounding the settlements and the seemingly endless Israel – Palestinian conflict. The purpose of these series of session is to try and move away from this dichotomy and bring back to life through song and poetry the spirit and the authentic voices of 1967 and their lingering impacts on our lives today.

Wednesday, February 21, Nosh 6:30-7 PM Class 7-8:15 PM

Bat El Trabelsi - Why is Peace in the Middle East so Complicated? Israeli Emissary for the Jewish Community of Greater Philadelphia
Have you ever wondered why the conflict seems to be never ending? Popular Israeli philosopher Micha Goodman deeply researched Israeli attitudes on the struggle with Palestinians and offers new ways to frame and discuss the issue and we will discuss his proposal in this program.

Monday, March 12, 8 AM after minyan and breakfast

Yaakov Malomet from the Reut Institute - BDS, Delegitimization, and the State of Israel: A Strategic Look
In the last 10 years, Israel and the American Jewish community have dedicated significant resources to facing this challenge, with mixed results. What is the state of de-legitimization today? What are the best strategies for protecting Israel's legitimacy?

Wednesday Night Adult Ed Series - Israel@70

6:20-7 PM - light fare and refreshments
