INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS Fixing Children's Broken Hearts

Nearly 5000 children from across the globe are living normal lives thanks to free heart surgeries they received care of Israeli doctors. The kids live in 51 countries – some of which have no diplomatic relations with Israel – including Syria, Iraq, Pakistan, Haiti, Tanzania, China, Ukraine, Sudan, Sierra Leone, and Angola.

Save a Child's Heart (SACH), an international humanitarian organization based in Israel, is the most prominent group giving children with cardiac conditions a healthier future. Founded in 1995, SACH has treated more than 4,000 children brought to Wolfson Medical Center in Holon from areas ravaged by war or natural disaster.

About half the patients are from Gaza and the West Bank, Jordan, Iraq and Morocco; more than 30 percent are from Africa; and the rest are from Asia, Eastern Europe and the Americas. All costs are covered by donors including the European Union's Partnership for Peace Program, USAID, and the German foundation Ein Herz fur Kinder.

HAR ZION YESHIVA

HZY is a framework for exploring core human themes through the lens of the Jewish tradition. Through texts, speakers and hands-on experiences we will strive to not just live a life, but to be present for the incredible cliffs and valleys of what life has to offer.

Thursdays at 7 PM January 2017

12th Beit Midrash Text Study: Jerusalem in the Biblical and Rabbinic Tradition
 Led by Rabbi Uri Allen

Come study in the Har Zion Beit Midrash and expand your understanding of Jerusalem in the Bible and Rabbinic texts.

19th A Modern Take on Jerusalem
 Led by Rabbi Moriah SimonHazani

Explore modern Jerusalem through the lens of contemporary poetry, music, film, art, and literature.

26th Hamsa Making With The Clay Studio
 $10 per person

The Clay Studio is coming to Har Zion to lead us in creating a hamsa, a spiritual focal point to direct our prayers for peace in Jerusalem.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
 - Psalm 122:6

Founded in 1974 by five artists in need of workspace, The Clay Studio was envisioned as a stepping stone for students fresh out of art school, offering affordable studio space and shared equipment. Within a short time, however, Clay Studio artists consciously shifted the Studio's mission from an inward focus to an outward educational and community focus. It was the artists' intention to affirm the importance of the ceramic arts alongside other art forms, as well as to bring clay as an accessible, tactile medium to a broad range of people.

These Har Zion Yeshiva classes are presented in conjunction with Engaging Jerusalem.

About Engaging Jerusalem: In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War, Har Zion will engage our kehillah in a celebration of our eternal city of hope. Over the next eight months, we will explore the diverse role Jerusalem has played for us as a people from biblical times to present day. Each month has been assigned a verb that will guide our exploration. January will be Studying Jerusalem. Throughout January we will offer opportunities both within our regular class schedule and through special programs to explore Jerusalem in all of her diversity, struggles, and glory.

Engaging Jerusalem

“If I forget thee, O Jerusalem...”

Jerusalem has captured the imagination of Jews for centuries. It’s the direction to which we pray, it’s the aspiration of centuries of dreamers, it holds hope and promise for many.

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War, Har Zion will engage our kehillah in a celebration of our eternal city of hope. Over the next eight months, we will explore the diverse role Jerusalem has played for us as a people from biblical times to present day.

Each month has been assigned a verb that will guide our exploration. January will be Studying Jerusalem. Throughout January we will offer opportunities both within our regular class schedule and through special programs to explore Jerusalem in all of her diversity, struggles, and glory.

Hot Topic: Jerusalem
