INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS
Israel's Glide Hatches First Camera For Apple Watch

It's a groundbreaking advance for the wearables field... So how did a small Israeli company get to design CMRA, the Apple Watch camera band accessory? "When we started playing with the first line of smart watches in 2013, we realized that we were close to the future of communication but it needed a camera to come to fruition," says Jonathan Caras, cofounder and COO of Glide, whose free video messaging app is installed on millions of Smartphones and devices, including Apple Watch and Android Wear. Introduced in 2014, Apple Watch has sold some 15 million units, yet it hadn't replaced the Smartphone as a primary-use device. Apple came to agree with Glide's assessment that a camera accessory could be game-changing. "When Apple heard that we were working on a camera-band accessory, they rolled out the red carpet to help us construct CMRA with an Apple feel and look," says Caras. HAR ZION YESHIVA

HZY is a framework for exploring core human themes through the lens of the Jewish tradition. Through texts, speakers and hand-on experiences we will strive to not just live a life, but to be present for the incredible cliffs and valleys of what life has to offer. This December, dedicate some time for yourself, as together we learn to take care of ourselves.

Tuesdays at 7 PM December 2016

1st Is there a Jewish way to take care of our bodies and our minds? What does our tradition have to say about self-care? Join Rabbi Allen in exploring the texts of our heritage that speak to this topic.

15th Yoga and Jewish themes are combined by Yogi and student of Jewish text, Joel Schnneier. Wear yoga-friendly clothes and bring a mat if you have one!

Drew Bergman is a senior at Temple University. While Drew is a successful full-time student with a bright future ahead, this was not always the case. Drew's early teenage years were filled a severe case of depression. For a brief time, he was able to hide his depression and continue to perform as an outstanding athlete and solid student. However, his sophomore year of high school that Drew experienced a turning point in his recovery when he attempted suicide for the second time.

Drew is a 2014 recipient of the Need In Deed Community Partner Award. He was a presenter at the national SADD conference and was one of the keynote speakers at the Pennsylvania State PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports) Conference where he presented to 1,000 educators and school counselors.
