Salon Ariel – Jewish Theatre in the Intimate Setting of a Home Cantorial by Ira Levin

From the writer of Rosemary's Baby and Death Trap comes a dramatic comedy about two yuppies who buy a condo, converted from a synagogue on Manhattan's Lower East Side. When the voice of the cantor, who died in 1943, suddenly booms forth from the walls, it's clear that this ghost is protesting the spoils of gentrification. And he won't go away!

Saturday, December 10, 8 PM and Sunday December 11, 2 PM

$36/person – seating is limited so buy your tickets soon! For tickets, go to www.theatreariel.org. For further info, contact us at info@theatreariel.org or 610-667-9230.

Philadelphia Food Distributions

One Sunday each month, 750-1,000+ volunteers meet as a community at our Northeast Philadelphia warehouse, located at 10980 Dutton Road, Philadelphia, 19154. They pack fresh produce and non-perishable kosher food, load their cars with boxes, and deliver food and a smile into the homes of those in need. This is a great way to fulfill your community service requirements for school or work. Community service forms are available at each of our food distributions. Box packing takes place from 10-11:30 AM, followed by food delivery. Early risers are welcome to help make boxes and bag fresh produce (no produce during the summer) between 8:30-10 AM. Just be sure to wear closed toe shoes while in the warehouse. Looking to volunteer later in the day or short on time? Food boxes can be picked up for delivery from 8:30 AM to 3 PM. Most delivery routes consist of 8-12 boxes and typically take about an hour to complete. Driving directions and a map are provided. To volunteer, sign up for our email list (where you will receive an email prior to each distribution that will contain a link that you can use to register directly for that food distribution), email jra@jewishrelief.org, or call 610-660-0190 x104.
