Engaging Jerusalem

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem..."

Jerusalem has captured the imagination of Jews for centuries. It's the direction to which we pray, it's the aspiration of centuries of dreamers, it holds hope and promise for many.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War, Har Zion will engage our kehillah in a celebration of our eternal city of hope. Over the next eight months, we will explore the diverse role Jerusalem has played for us as a people from biblical times to present day.

February is dedicated to Singing Jerusalem. Every week, we will feature one or two selections from the endless well of "Songs about Jerusalem."

Lach Yerushalayim-1967

The City of Jerusalem was reclaimed during the Six-Day War, causing a great joy and pride in the Jewish people. This song, "Lach Yerushalayim" with a very identifiable sound of that era, was written by Amos Ettinger and Eli Rubinstein. It clearly demonstrates the excitement, if not the euphoria that existed amongst Jews everywhere. The song quickly became a popular Israeli folk dance which was "exported" around the world. This video illustrates the dance being taught to a group of Japanese folk dancers.
