Chai Simcha Wall Plaques

There is no greater joy than the celebration of Jewish life cycle events. The meaning and memory of your event is heightened when it becomes a permanent part of our synagogue's Chai Simcha Tablet.

The Tablet is a beautiful reminder of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, baby naming, wedding, anniversary, and other happy occasions shared with family and friends. For more information, please call the synagogue office.

Yahrzeit Plaques

Remember your loved ones with a yahrzeit plaque in the Bronstein Memorial Room. The donation for each plaque is $750. For information or to order a plaque, please call the synagogue office.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEPTA representatives will be present at five Philadelphia senior community centers in the coming weeks to take photos for the new SEPTA Key senior photo ID cards, which work with SEPTA's new fare payment system and will serve as IDs for those 65 and older to access the Seniors Ride Free Program. During the photo sessions, information will be shared about SEPTA's paratransit service, Customized Community Transportation (CCT) Connect, which is for seniors and individuals with disabilities. CCT Connect riders will be able to provide feedback about the program to SEPTA representatives. For more info, visit www.pcacares.org.

Israeli Film Festival of Philadelphia Opens 2017 Season – March 4-April 2

In our 2017 season, the Israeli Film Festival of Philadelphia marks its 21st year. The Israeli Film Festival of Philadelphia is a celebration of Israeli culture, with the aim of enriching the American vision of Israeli culture and society through film. Each season, a slate of feature films and documentaries are selected to provide a diverse and impartial reflection of Israel. It is our goal to be both entertaining and informative. Our program includes feature films, dramas, comedies and documentaries that are award-winning and have received wide recognition both in Israel and abroad. As a non-profit organization, the continuing success of the IFF is due, in large part, to support from various organizations and private donors. The IFF is funded through ticket sales, personal and corporate contributions, as well as in-kind contributions. Organizational support is provided by The Center for Israel and Overseas, the Consulate General of Israel in Philadelphia, and a wide array of community partners. For more info go to: <http://iffphila.com/>

“What Parents Need to Know About Social Media and the Internet” Wednesday, March 15, 7-8:30 PM

Listen to teens speak about how teens and kids use social media, how social media has its own hierarchy and what teens are seeking to say about themselves through social media. Multi-disciplinary experts including mental health, law enforcement, college admissions and vocational professionals will present about the role of social media and its impact on your teenager; what is permissible and what is criminal conduct, and its consequences; how colleges are using social media in the application process; and, how employers and recruiters use social media in hiring. Free and for all parents of school-aged children. Listen, learn and ask questions.

JCC Maccabi Experience - Tryouts Posted

The JCC Maccabi Games is an Olympic style sporting competition for Jewish athletes ages 13-16. It is held each summer in North America. Team Philadelphia recruits from the 5-county Philadelphia area to form one delegation. Athletes must tryout and be selected for a team. Sports include: basketball, soccer, baseball, ice hockey, lacrosse, swimming, tennis, dance, track, golf and table tennis. The sport selected determines the city you will be travelling to. 2017 Hosts are: Birmingham July 30-Aug 4; Miami and Albany Aug 6-11. For more information call or email Marti Berk at 610-896-7770 x125 or mberk@phillyjcc.com.

Mid-Atlantic Jr games is a one-day Maccabi experience for Jewish athletes ages 10-12. This set of games allows athletes to play for their "neighborhood" and divides the area into four delegations: Team Kaiserman (Main Line), Team Mont Co, Team Center City and Team Bucks. Athletes tryout for a team in one of these neighborhoods. Games will be held this year in Wilmington DE on Sunday, May 7. For more information call or email Marti Berk at 610-896-7770 x125 or mberk@phillyjcc.com. (Those interested in Jr Maccabi Bucks County should contact Jeff Fuchs at jeff@bucksmaccabi.com)

Warning Signs of Suicide Risk and How to Help

by Adrienne Tomlinson, Director of Education and Outreach

Suicide is highly correlated with depression, and depression often increases during the winter months. Suicide is the second leading cause of death among 10-24 year olds nationally, and it affects all races, socio-economic demographics and genders. Identifying both the symptoms of depression and the warning signs of suicide can potentially save a life. There are many factors that may contribute to this problem and ways that you could be helpful.

The Mitzvah Food Project needs your help to deliver food boxes to seniors in need! We are relying on support from our community to deliver food boxes to nearby senior homes and apartments (once a month) from two of our pantry locations. Boxes are provided by the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP).

Now is your chance to do a wonderful mitzvah: sign up for a delivery route today! Delivery routes are local and will take approximately 30 minutes. Recipients will sign for the food box at the door. Please know...we must fill these routes in order to pilot this new program.

Locations of food box pick-up are: JCCs Raymond & Miriam Klein Branch, 10100 Jamison Ave, Northeast Philadelphia 19116 and JCCs Jacob & Esther Stiffel Senior Center, 604 Porter Street, South Philadelphia 19148.

Whether you are looking for a B'nai-Mitzvah Project for your child, community service work, or just volunteering for a wonderful cause, please e-mail or call us. We thank you for your time and look forward to hearing from you soon! Together, we can end hunger in our community.

Contact the Mitzvah Food Project's Administrative Office with any questions: 215-832-0509 or by email at <mailto:foodproject@jfgp.org>.

Philadelphia Food Distributions

One Sunday each month, 750-1,000+ volunteers of all ages and backgrounds meet as a community at our Northeast Philadelphia warehouse, located at 10980 Dutton Road, Philadelphia, 19154. These volunteers pack fresh produce and non-perishable kosher food, load their cars with boxes, and deliver food and a smile into the homes of those in need. This is a great way to fulfill your community service requirements for school or work. Community service forms are available at each of our food distributions. Box packing takes place from 10 - 11:30 AM, followed by food delivery. Early risers are welcome to help make boxes and bag fresh produce (no produce during the summer) between 8:30 - 10 AM. Just be sure to wear closed toe shoes while in the warehouse, as sandals are not permitted. Looking to volunteer later in the day or short on time? Food boxes can be picked up for delivery from 8:30 AM to 3 PM. Most delivery routes consist of 8-12 boxes and typically take about an hour to complete. Driving directions and a map are provided.

To volunteer, sign up for our email list (where you will receive an email prior to each distribution that will contain a link that you can use to register directly for that food distribution), email <mailto:jra@jewishrelief.org>, or call 610-660-0190 x104.
