INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS New Smartwatch App Could Help Avoid Fraud

Signature verification technologies are extremely important in online finance and e-commerce. Financial fraud is a global concern with the latest reports showing that Americans currently lose $50 billion a year to fraudulent practices, while six million Britons were victims of financial fraud last year. Israeli researchers have a new novel system that uses smartwatch devices and software to verify handwritten signatures and detect even the most skilled forgeries. The researchers, from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev and Tel Aviv University have developed software that uses motion data gathered from the movements of a person's wrist to identify the writer during the signing process. # Engaging Jerusalem

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem..."

Jerusalem has captured the imagination of Jews for centuries. It's the direction to which we pray, it's the aspiration of centuries of dreamers, it holds hope and promise for many.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War, Har Zion will engage our kehillah in a celebration of our eternal city of hope. Over the next eight months, we will explore the diverse role Jerusalem has played for us as a people from biblical times to present day.

This is the last selection from the endless well of "Songs about Jerusalem."

Probably appealing to a younger audience, this week's selection is by the popular Jewish American reggae vocalist, beatboxer, and alternative rock musician Matisyahu. While it may not be everyone's "cup of tea," it clearly speaks a traditional message of how Jerusalem is viewed by both young and old today. It was written during the period when the artist (born Matthew Paul Miller in Westchester, PA) was living an orthodox lifestyle.

Here is a portion of the lyrics:

*In the ancient days, we will return with no delay
Picking up the bounty and the spoils on our way
We've been traveling from state to state
And them don't understand what they say
Three thousand years with no place to be
They want me to give up my milk and honey
Don't you see, it's not about the land or the sea
Not the country but the dwelling of his majesty
Jerusalem, if I forget you
Fire not gonna come from me tongue
Jerusalem, if I forget you
Let my right hand forget what it's supposed to do...*

March is Eating Jerusalem

Throughout March, we will offer opportunities both within our regular class schedule and through special programs to explore Jerusalem in all of her diversity, struggles, and glory.

"The faithful may rhapsodize about the spiritual highs to be reached in the Old City... but the true Jerusalem lover knows that the city's greatest attraction is, well, somewhat more tangible – and more edible." – GoJerusalem.com
