Mi Shebeirach

Mi shebeirach avoteinu

M'kor hab'racha l'imoteinu

May the source of strength,
Who blessed the ones before us,
Help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing, and let us say, Amen.

Mi shebeirach imoteinu

M'kor habrachah l'avoteinu

Bless those in need of healing with

Aiding our Aging and Disabled Community Members

March 2: Jewish Perspectives on Caring

For anyone who has ever asked, "How can I possibly survive this? How can I maintain faith in God when tragedy occurs? Is it possible to experience joy alongside continuing heartbreak?"

Rabbi Nogah Marshall and her father Rabbi Charles Sherman offer deep insight, refreshing honesty, humor and Jewish wisdom, while sharing their thoughts on these questions. It is a conversation between father and daughter, rooted in an inspirational family narrative that addresses the questions we may have at one time or another.

March 9: Caring for our Jewish Elderly

Philadelphia has one of the oldest Jewish communities in the country. Join us for a panel discussion about government policies impacting the elderly, and how our community meets the needs of our aging population. The panelists are Carol Irvine, President & CEO of Abramson Center for Jewish Life, and Andre Krug, President & CEO of Kleinlife. The moderator is Brian Gralnick, Director of Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia's Center for Social Responsibility.

March 16: Supporting Individuals with Special Needs

Life with a disability may present a host of challenges. Join us for a panel discussion about how our community supports and advocates on behalf of people with special needs. The panelists are Stacy Jarrett Levitan, Executive Director of Judith Creed Homes for Adult Independence, Paula Goldstein, President & CEO of Jewish Family and Children's Service and Jay Spector, President & CEO of JEVS, operator of Tikvah Residence, a non-profit organization that provides community housing for adults with mental health needs. The moderator is Brian Gralnick.

INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS

Going Undercover To Save Syrian Lives

Some 200 or so Israeli volunteers working for the Doreen Gold's nonprofit, 114Syrians, have been operating in stealth mode since the revolution began in 2011. It's a dangerous job for anyone, but for Israelis the consequences of exposure are unthinkable. Doreen, whose name has been changed to hide her identity, signed a form that says that if she is captured, the government will not negotiate for her release. It's a form that all of her volunteers – Arab, Jewish, Christian and Druze – must fill out before they leave on a mission.

Since 1994, Doreen, a mother of two, has been giving aid in some of the worst humanitarian disasters of the last couple of decades. The tsunami in Southeast Asia, devastating flooding in Chechnya, the earthquake in Haiti. She's responded to crises in Iraq, Pakistan, Indonesia, Rwanda and Darfur.

Approaches to Torah

Tuesdays

March 8, April 19 and May 3

6:15-7:30 PM

Conservative Judaism believes that there is more than one approach to understanding Torah. We debate about what really happened at Sinai.

What does Torah mean?

How can two Jews have three opinions about matters of "fact?"

Come learn about and discuss the question of divine authority from Orthodox, Conservative, Reform, Reconstructionist perspectives.

Join Rabbi Rosenberg after evening minyan for a light dinner and discussion.

There is no cost for dinner.

RSVP is required no later than Friday, March 4.

Please email Marcy Gubernick, mgubernick@harziontemple.org.
