Aliyot Are for Everyone!

If anyone would like an aliyah to commemorate a yahrzeit, celebrate a birthday or anniversary, graduation, or just because – please contact Laurie Albert, 610-667-5000, ext 111 or lalbert@harziontemple.org. Need to review or learn the blessings? A clergy member can help you with that too!

Chai Simcha Wall Plaques

There is no greater joy than the celebration of Jewish life cycle events. The meaning and memory of your event is heightened when it becomes a permanent part of our synagogue's Chai Simcha Tablet.

The Tablet is a beautiful reminder of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, baby naming, wedding, anniversary, and other happy occasions shared with family and friends. For more information, please call the synagogue office.

Yahrzeit Plaques

Remember your loved ones with a yahrzeit plaque in the Bronstein Memorial Room. The donation for each plaque is $750. For information or to order a plaque, please call the synagogue office.

Theatre Ariel 2017-18 Season

Salon #3: Jewish Playwriting Contest – Regional Premieres!

Limited Seating!

Thursday, February 8, 7:30 PM at The Powel House, 244 South 3rd Street, between Willings Alley and Spruce Street

Saturday, February 10, 8 PM and Sunday, February 11, 2 PM matinee on the Main Line

In partnership with New York City's Jewish Plays Project and PhilaLandmarks, Theatre Ariel is participating in a National Jewish Playwriting contest. From 14 competing plays, a group of Philadelphia play readers choose their three "Best Plays": Belfast Kind, Estelle Singerman and How To Conquered America: A Mostly True History of Yogurt. Salon Ariel audiences will see 20-minute excerpts performed from each of these plays and via text messaging vote for the play that most compellingly embodies the Jewish voice, picking a Philadelphia winner. Seven other cities across the U.S. are engaged in this process. From these eight cities, a winner will be chosen as Best Jewish Play of 2018 and will be produced in New York City as part of the 7th Annual Jewish Playwriting Contest June 2018.

To purchase tickets, visit www.theatreariel.org to review dates.

Need help purchasing tickets? Email info@theatreariel.org for assistance.

Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia

Federation Super Sunday – February 11

Super Sunday is a crucial day for Jewish communities throughout the Greater Philadelphia region. It's a day when we come together to remind the community about the importance of collective compassion for others, which involves learning about our communities needs and raise funds for our Jewish Federation, so that our organization can, in turn, address them. This is a wonderful community-building event, in which friends and neighbors enjoy each other's company as they unite for an important cause.

This year, Super Sunday is coming to five locations across the Greater Philadelphia region — due to popular demand — making the event even more convenient, and allowing people to further connect with their kehillot.

For a complete listing of locations and times, please go to <https://jewishphilly.org/get-involved/signature-events/super-sunday/>

Author Anastasia Goodman at the Kleinlife Center – Wednesday, April 11, 12:45 PM

This spring on April 11 from 12:45-1:45 pm, author Anastasia Goodman will be presenting a public program at Kleinlife (10100 Jamison Avenue, Philadelphia).

Anastasia Goodman writes Jewish themed mysteries. Her quirky Hero Sasha Perlov is a Russian born NYPD detective whose mother was a Soviet dissident & grandson of the Hero of the Battle of Stalingrad. This family history is woven into the novels. We just completed a successful reading & lively discussion at Suffolk County, NY JCC. She has previously been selected as an author for the Jewish Federation of Eastern Connecticut sponsored Author Series. In synagogues in RI & CT, Ms. Goodman has appeared reading from her novels and engaging her audiences in fun and lively discussions.

Please join us and we always welcome the opportunity for other author readings and appearances.

How to Support Grieving Parents of Pregnancy and Infant Loss

by Dvora Entin, LCSW, Director of Ma'oz

The US has an alarmingly high rate of miscarriage, stillbirth, and infant mortality for a developed country. The grief a family suffers at this type of loss is devastating, and is largely under-acknowledged here and around the world. Today, couples may access conference call support groups, a moderated chat group, and other resources for mothers, couples, and fathers who have suffered a perinatal loss.

Heart to Heart is here for you! Are you having difficulty making ends meet? Have you recently lost your job? Have you been experiencing hardship or recent life changes? Are you struggling to put food on the table? Are you looking for assistance in deciding what to do next in order to improve your situation? If you've said yes to any of these questions and you are under the age of 65, contact us now for help!

For additional information and eligibility, please contact Program Director Anya Goldberg, at 215-698-7300 x135 or agoldberg@kleinjcc.org.

The Mitzvah Food Project needs your help to deliver food boxes to seniors in need! We are relying on support from our community to deliver food boxes to nearby senior homes and apartments (once a month) from two of our pantry locations. Boxes are provided by the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP).

Now is your chance to do a wonderful mitzvah: sign up for a delivery route today! Delivery routes are local and will take approximately 30 minutes. Recipients will sign for the food box at the door. Please know...we must fill these routes in order to pilot this new program.

Locations of food box pick-up are: JCCs Raymond & Miriam Klein Branch, 10100 Jamison Ave, Northeast Philadelphia 19116 and JCCs Jacob & Esther Stiffel Senior Center, 604 Porter Street, South Philadelphia 19148.

Whether you are looking for a B'nai-Mitzvah Project for your child, community service work, or just volunteering for a wonderful cause, please e-mail or call us. We thank you for your time and look forward to hearing from you soon! Together, we can end hunger in our community.

Contact the Mitzvah Food Project's Administrative Office with any questions: 215-832-0509 or by email at <mailto:foodproject@jfgp.org>.

Philadelphia Food Distributions

One Sunday each month, 750-1,000+ volunteers of all ages and backgrounds meet as a community at our Northeast Philadelphia warehouse, located at 10980 Dutton Road, Philadelphia, 19154. These volunteers pack fresh produce and non-perishable kosher food, load their cars with boxes, and deliver food and a smile into the homes of those in need. This is a great way to fulfill your community service requirements for school or work. Community service forms are available at each of our food distributions. Box packing takes place from 10 - 11:30 AM, followed by food delivery. Early risers are welcome to help make boxes and bag fresh produce (no produce during the summer) between 8:30 - 10 AM. Just be sure to wear closed toe shoes while in the warehouse, as sandals are not permitted. Looking to volunteer later in the day or short on time? Food boxes can be picked up for delivery from 8:30 AM to 3 PM. Most delivery routes consist of 8-12 boxes and typically take about an hour to complete. Driving directions and a map are provided.

To volunteer, sign up for our email list (where you will receive an email prior to each distribution that will contain a link that you can use to register directly for that food distribution), email <mailto:jra@jewishrelief.org>, or call 610-660-0190 x104.
