Yom Hashoah Commemoration

Sunday, April 23, 5 PM, followed by Services at 6:30 PM

with honored guests

Sandra Roberts, founding teacher of the "Paper Clips" Project from Whitwell, Tennessee
Middle school students from the small southeastern Tennessee town of Whitwell created a monument for the Holocaust victims of Nazi Germany. It started in 1998 as a simple 8th-grade project to study other cultures, and then evolved into one gaining worldwide attention.

At last count, over 33 million paper clips had been received.

Paper Clips, an award-winning documentary film about the project, was released in 2004.

Students from Har Zion and neighboring synagogues will be celebrating their 6th consecutive year visiting the Children's Holocaust Memorial in Whitwell, Tennessee on Sunday, April 30.

Bea Hollander, Director of the Transcending Trauma Project, part of the Council for Relationships

Since 1991, the Transcending Trauma Project, as part of Council for Relationships, has conducted 305 in-depth life histories with 98 Holocaust survivors, and their children and grandchildren to better understand coping and adaptation after extreme trauma. The project has produced 1200 hours of interviews which are permanently preserved as digital files. The Phil Wachs and Juliet Spitzer Archive of the Transcending Trauma Project is housed at the US Holocaust Memorial Museum and is available onsite to the public.

In 2015, the archive was given to Yad Vashem and Temple University's Special Collections Research Center.

This program made possible through the Sauer Family Yom Hashoah Fund.

Engaging Jerusalem

April is Telling Jerusalem

"Jerusalem is a Port City on the shores of eternity" (Yehudah Amichai) – As we all recognize Jerusalem is a land-locked city so what kind of a port can it be? It is a metaphysical one that conveys the story of each traveler that visits its shores. Each journey's narrative is stored and awaits another pilgrim to carry it on to the next destination. In the month of April, we are asking you to share your Jerusalem Stories with us. Invite us into your journey and benefit from the adventures of others.

Adding Jerusalem to Your Home Seder

Wednesday, April 5, 7-9 PM

Dig deeper into Passover and discover ways to include Israel and Jerusalem in your Seder experience beyond the "Next Year in Jerusalem" closing line. In this class, you will learn some new techniques to use at your Seder, whether you are leading one for the first time or the 50th time (though maybe you will share some tricks with us as well). Furthermore, we will discuss traditional and contemporary themes of the day that can deepen your discussion of the holiday and learn from customs of Jewish communities from around the world. Co-taught by Rabbi Allen, Cantor Vogel, and Rabbi Shawn

Telling Jerusalem – Personal Israel Stories

Wednesday, April 19, 7-9 PM

We want the congregation and community members to share their Israel/Jerusalem stories. We invite you to an evening of good cheer, good food and good stories. Add your story to ours, please contact Rabbi Shawn to RSVP: 610-667-5000, ext 114 or rabbishawn@harziontemple.org
