HAR ZION SISTERHOOD ADULT EDUCATION – WEDNESDAYS, APRIL 13 AND 20, 10:00 AM

Har Zion Temple – All are welcome – Classes are free

SAFETY IN OUR COMMUNITY

April 13: Women and Violence – On average, nearly 20 people per minute are physically abused by an intimate partner in the U.S. During one year, this equates to more than 10 million women and men. On a typical day, there are more than 20,000 phone calls placed to domestic violence hotlines nationwide. In domestic violence homicides, women are six times more likely to be killed when there is a gun in the house. Kelly Gabriel, the Community Education Coordinator of the Women's Center of Montgomery County, along with volunteers from the Women's Center, will discuss domestic violence.

April 20: Guns and Our Community – We have a gun violence problem in America. Summer 2015 saw mass shootings in a church, at military recruiting centers, at a movie theater, and in homes. This is in addition to the daily toll of gun violence in our cities – in July 2015, in one night, three people were shot and killed in Philadelphia. Every day, the news makes clear what we already know – we have a widespread and indiscriminate problem. Join Shira Goodman, Executive Director of CeaseFirePA, as she discusses the latest issues related to gun control.

"ART/GENDER/JUDAISM: TRANSFORMING IDENTITIES" – MONDAY, APRIL 11, 7:30 PM

Panelists: Danielle Abrams, Performance Artist; Faculty, School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston;

Amichai Lau-Lavie, Spiritual Leader, Lab/Shul, New York;

Gil Yefman, Visual and Performance Artist, Tel Aviv

Moderator: Norman L. Kleeblatt, Susan and Elihu Rose Chief Curator, Jewish Museum, New York

Shows like Transparent and Orange Is the New Black have brought issues of gender and sexual identity to the forefront of public discussion. This "mainstreaming" of gender nonconformity has been furthered by artists whose work focuses on understanding and celebrating those who have historically been considered as "other."

What strategies do artists use to explore gender fluidity? How have Jewish artists advanced the current conversation around gender and sexual identity, which at times has included confronting their religious and cultural tradition?

The Jewish Theological Seminary, 3080 Broadway (at 122nd Street), New York City

Admission is free, but reservations are required.

To register, please visit:

JEWISH RELIEF AGENCY NEEDS YOU!

A Call for Young Professionals...

We are coordinating a regular group of volunteers to attend JRA each and every month of the year, and are asking the Har Zion young professionals group (AVIV) if they would be interested in joining. We typically meet at 9:00 AM and help assemble boxes for 2-2.5 hours and then make deliveries using our own vehicles. So, all told, it's about a four hour commitment. We need to have a list of volunteers in order to get routes assigned, etc. We just need volunteers' full names and email addresses. And we need to know if they'll be bringing their own cars as we're responsible for delivering the boxes of food to the recipients. Because of this, it's important that people honor the commitment as we get assigned a certain number of routes and boxes based on how many people volunteer and how many cars we have at our disposal. If you are interested, please contact Josh Brockman, jobrockm@yahoo.com.

Now is your chance to do a wonderful mitzvah: sign up for a delivery route today! Delivery routes are local and will take approximately 30 minutes. Recipients will sign for the food box at the door. Please know...we must fill these routes in order to pilot this new program.

Locations of food box pick-up are: JCCs Raymond & Miriam Klein Branch, 10100 Jamison Ave, Northeast Philadelphia 19116 and JCCs Jacob & Esther Stiffel Senior Center, 604 Porter Street, South Philadelphia 19148.
