Join with Rabbi Rosenberg after evening minyan for light dinner and discussion.

There is no cost for dinner and rsvps are required: mgubernick@harziontemple.org.

INNOVATION UPDATE FROM  ISRAEL IDEAS
American Commuters Get a Low-Cost Shared Ride

The days of hailing a cab and searching for change are coming to a halt. Today's commuters can schedule and pay for cabs and ride-shares from their mobile devices. Via, a ride-sharing app which launched in 2012 offers on-demand shared rides driven only by licensed taxi drivers. Book a ride through the free iOS or Android app, and the algorithms match you with a "Via-cle" already headed your way with up to five other passengers. So far, the service is available in parts of Chicago and New York City.

For New York City users, rides cost $5 plus tax if prepaid or $7 plus tax, if not prepaid, and is charged automatically to a credit card or commuter benefits debit card. The rides pick you up on the nearest corner of a street that flows in the direction of your destination and drops you off within a couple of blocks of where you want to go. The company reports that the average wait time for a Via-cle is five minutes. Users get an estimate of pickup time before booking and can use the app to track the van's progress.
