This Week...

Talmud with Rabbi Sarra Lev, PhD – Monday, 11:15 AM – Last class

The rabbinic prohibitions against shaming another often lie in stark contrast to stories of shaming and competition among those very same rabbis. This class begins by examining texts on monetary compensation for shaming (Who must pay? How much? For what kinds of shaming?) and then moves on to examine stories of rabbis shaming one another. The course asks the overarching question – what is the Talmud trying to tell us about shame/shaming?

D'var T'filah with Hazzan Vogel – Tuesdays after 7 AM Minyan

D'var T'filah (a "teaching about prayer") – Hazzan Vogel will offer brief insights into the spiritual dynamics of prayer focusing each time on why prayer is difficult and what we can do about it.

Popular Commentaries on Genesis with Rabbi Ira Flax – Thursdays, 10 AM

We will study the commentaries found in the Hertz Chumash, the Etz Hayim Chumash, and the commentaries of modern biblical scholars to deepen our understanding of the first book of the Bible.

INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS

A Device that Aims to Clean up Your Air

If you suffer from pollen allergies or are concerned about “indoor pollution” from sources such as cleaning materials, furniture glue and mold, you might have considered buying an air purifier. And if you’re a safety-concerned home owner, you probably already have a few smoke and carbon monoxide alarms installed. Israeli startup Aura Air asks: Why buy two devices when you could have it all-in-one? The Tel Aviv-based company launched a crowd-funding campaign earlier this year to build its indoor air-quality detector and air purifier combo. The goal was a modest $15,000, but backers pledged close to $300,000. That’s on top of the $1.5 million the company received from private angel investors when it launched in 2017. Transportation to Har Zion Temple

"Oh, if I'd only known she/he needed a ride to Har Zion."

"Oh, I would have been there but I couldn't get a ride."

We are hearing these statements more and more – and would like to help our congregants who would like to attend services, meetings and programs.

Do you need a ride...To Services? To daytime or evening meetings and/or programs?

Can you provide an occasional ride?

What areas would be convenient for you? What Services, meetings, or programs do you usually attend (morning/afternoon/evening)?

Please contact Nanci Goldman, nancigoldman22@gmail.com or 610-664-7987.
