Give a D'var Torah at Shabbat Services...

Now through August 25-26, we encourage all members to step forward and prepare three to five minutes of Torah or Haftarah commentary to present at Friday night or Saturday morning services. Please contact Rabbi Allen, rualen@harzientemple.org to select a date. All of our clergy are more than ready to help you prepare. If you are interested in either or both, let Rabbi Alpert, rralpert@harzientemple.org know as soon as possible. All are wonderful opportunities to grow Jewishly, and the congregation looks forward to hearing your insights or chanting.

INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS

Devoted To Creating The Best Sounding Instruments On The Market

Not far from the Old Jaffa port, there's a small guitar workshop where boutique guitars are handcrafted for customers as far away as Singapore, Hawaii and Dubai. Cofounders Yotam "Kiki" Goldstein and Eliran Barashi, together with company CEO Avi Goldfinger, have been making and selling B&G Guitars for a little more than two years. "It's not just about crafting a guitar; it's also about crafting the best sound possible," said Goldstein. "People who appreciate craftsmanship and classical brands buy our guitars."

Most of the materials, including the brass hardware and even the glue and grain filler, are made by the B&G team. The woods used for the guitar bodies, however, come from all over the world including Africa, Honduras, Brazil, India, Canada and the United States.

Most customers buy the guitars online, having never stepped foot in the factory or held a B&G guitar. The company's innovative website features videos and detailed explanations regarding guitar models. Online customers can choose the guitar's maple top and custom-select the color finish, choosing a variety of finishes including cherry burst and natural wood.
