Give a D'var Torah at Shabbat Services...

Now through August 25-26, we encourage all members to step forward and prepare three to five minutes of Torah or Haftarah commentary to present at Friday night or Saturday morning services. Please contact Rabbi Allen, ruallen@harziontemple.org to select a date. All of our clergy are more than ready to help you prepare. If you are interested in either or both, let Rabbi Alpert, rralpert@harziontemple.org know as soon as possible. All are wonderful opportunities to grow Jewishly, and the congregation looks forward to hearing your insights or chanting.

INNOVATION UPDATE FROM ISRAEL IDEAS

In The Race To Moon, SpacEL Craft Is Approaching The Final Stages

Israel's non-profit SpacEL, one of only five teams remaining in the multi-million-dollar Google Lunar XPrize race to the moon, is starting to assemble the craft to be launched in 2018, according to SpacEL CEO Eran Privman. "We are thrilled to share with you that the various parts and components of the spacecraft are in advanced stages of manufacture in Israel and abroad," he announced this week.

The competition began 10 years ago with 33 teams vying to be the first to soft-land a privately funded, unmanned robot on the moon, move it 500 meters across the moon's surface and transmit high-definition video and photos back to Earth. The top prize is $20 million. The nonprofit SpacEL was the last to register, at the end of 2010, but was the first to secure the required launch contract.
