High Holiday Security Program Wednesday, September 25, 7-8 PM

In our continuing efforts to keep our community educated and prepared, Har Zion's Security Committee invites you to a special High Holiday Safety Educational Program on Wednesday, September 25, from 7 - 8 PM, when we will be reviewing safety and security procedures to help us be prepared for emergency situations on the High Holidays.

This program will take place in the expanded Sanctuary which will already be set up to accommodate the large crowd we anticipate for the holidays. We will be discussing the plans we have in place to handle emergencies, reviewing what everyone should do in those situations, and practicing our responses.

Please note – Everyone is invited to attend, but this program is inappropriate for children under the age of 13.

You are an important part of Har Zion's safety and security, and as you and your family prepare for the holidays, we hope you will take the time to attend this important program.

Important Change for the Second Day of Rosh Hashanah

Like many synagogues across the country, Har Zion boasts many more empty seats on the second day of Rosh Hashanah than on the first. This is largely because the second day is typically a repetition of the first and can feel redundant. However, any opportunity to be together as a sacred community is an opportunity to uplift us and bring us meaning and joy. So, this year, on the second day of Rosh Hashanah, we will offer something new; it will not be an exact repeat of the first day with one thousand fewer people and one thousand empty seats. If you are part of our Har Zion community this year for the second day of Rosh Hashanah, you will experience a more intimate, more participatory High Holy Day service. There will be opportunities for discussion and interactive study with me and with the people sitting around you.

To facilitate the intimacy necessary for greater participation and interaction, we will experiment on the second day of Rosh Hashanah with closing the doors to the Gorson, Fishman and Tobin Auditoriums and having open seating. Just as you are asked to be flexible with your place in the Sanctuary on the second day of Rosh Hashanah, we too will be flexible and will lead parts of the service from the floor instead of the bimah. We are eager for the opportunity to engage in the second day of Rosh Hashanah together, to dig deeper into our prayers, and to be closer to our loved ones and friends. Thank you for your open-mindedness, your support, and your willingness to explore opportunities with Rabbi Haaz and Hazzan Vogel to enhance our High Holy Day experience at Har Zion.

Patient G is none other than the One, God. The fate of the world is at risk! Anat Gov often referred to as Israel's Wendy Wasserstein has written a witty, poignant and smart play that challenges us to examine issues of faith.

Dear Congregants,

This fall, Sukkot begins on Sunday evening, October 13, 2019. One of the mitzvot of Sukkot is to wave the lulav and etrog. While there is an opportunity to take part in the mitzvah in synagogue each morning of the holiday (except Shabbat), it is a mitzvah that we can bring into our homes as well, whether or not we build our own sukkah.

We invite you to order your own lulav and etrog through Har Zion. The cost for a set is only $45 (still no price increase!). Orders will be available to pick up on October 11, and we encourage you to bring them home before the holiday starts so that you may use them as much as possible.

Please submit your order to Laurie Albert (lalbert@harziontemple.org; 610-667-5000 x111; or in person) by Tuesday, September 24. We cannot accept orders after this date.

Warmest wishes on the New Year of 5780!

Best,

Ely Levine
Scholar-in-Residence and Ritual Coordinator
