

Adult Education 5780 (2019-20)

Learning through the Week

Monday

11:45 AM-12:45 PM

Talmud with Rabbi Sarra Lev, PhD

The rabbinic prohibitions against shaming another often lie in stark contrast to stories of shaming and competition among those very same rabbis. This class asks the overarching question – what is the Talmud trying to tell us about shame/shaming?

Rabbi Lev is an associate professor of rabbinic texts (Talmud and Midrash) at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. She has taught adult education in many contexts including synagogues, Jewish Alive & American, the Feminist Center of the American Jewish Congress, Me'ah, and Bat Kol: A Feminist House of Study, which she co-founded. She delights in teaching.

1:00-2:00 PM

Ancestral Journeys: Ancient Biblical Myth and End-of-Life Wisdom in Torah and Midrash with Simcha Raphael

November 5, 19, December 3, 17, 10-11:30 AM

An exploration of the themes of life, death, loss and transformation in the sacred stories of the Book of Genesis, with contemporary guidelines for living life in our times.

NOVEMBER 5

Abraham's Calling - From Grief of Emptiness to Fulfillment of Destiny

In Genesis we read of Abraham's calling to become the father of a nation. Yet, in his lifetime he experienced much loss - death in the family, infertility, uprooted from his home and birthplace. Abraham's story is a reminder that each of us are called into our own unique destiny, often against the background of loss and change in our life.

NOVEMBER 19

Isaac's Midlife Transition - The Akedah as a Near-Death Experience

What really happened to Isaac when his father brought him to be sacrificed? Through an exploration of both Torah and Midrash we shall look at the Akedah as a near-death experience which led to the spiritual emergence of Isaac

DECEMBER 3

Jacob's Deathbed Finale - Family Drama and Trauma at the End of Life

The deathbed story of Jacob, at the end of Genesis, offers us wisdom for encountering the reality of death and loss. From Jacob's story we learn to deal with death and the complex family dynamics surrounding dying and mourning with integrity and equanimity.

DECEMBER 17

Carrying Joseph's Bones - Sinai Procession as a Funeral Ritual

This presentation explores the importance of bringing Joseph's bones out of Egypt, and the Jewish tradition of memory. We shall discover how a sense of connection between the world of the living and the world of the dead has been part of the Jewish experience throughout the ages.

Simcha Raphael, Ph.D. is Founding Director of DA'AT Institute for Death Awareness, Advocacy and Training. Adjunct Professor in Religion at LaSalle University, and a psychotherapist and spiritual director, he is a Fellow of Rabbis Without Borders network, and author of the ground-breaking classic Jewish Views of the Afterlife. His website is www.daatinstitute.net

11 AM

An in-depth, multi-faceted study of our Shabbat liturgy. By “unpacking” the many layers of meaning and commentary, we hope to gain a deeper understanding of our prayers and an appreciation for their language, ideas and values.

Parshat Hashavua for the Sandwich Generation with Rabbi Shawn

11 AM

What is the The Sandwich Generation? It typically refers to those of us that are sandwiched between the needs of their children and those of their aging parents. If you are between the ages of 45ish and 65ish, together, we will focus on topics that are relevant today. Are you dealing with, aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness, and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas? If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us!

Dr. Ely Levine

Scholar-in-Residence

Archaeology and the Bible: What do we know? What can we do?

Archaeology has the potential to teach us a lot about people who lived long ago. It also has the potential to be misused to confirm preconceived notions about the past. Since the Bible is such a polarizing document, archaeology has been mustered by some seeking to "prove" the Bible and by others seeking to discredit the Bible. Dr. Ely Levine, who earned his doctorate in Biblical studies and archaeology, will speak about his experience in the field, and how it informs conversations between these two fields.

Reel Torah

The Ten Commandments! Noah! Monty Python's Life of Brian! The Prince of Egypt! These blockbuster movies have little in common other than that they are Bible movies. Come see how these movies and others use the Bible as a vehicle to communicate a message, and how the way of doing so has changed over the 120 years of the movie biz. You'll laugh, you'll cry; we'll serve popcorn!
