

Adult Education 5780 (2019-20)

Learning through the Week

Monday

Talmud with Rabbi Sarra Lev, PhD

11:45 AM-12:45 PM

The rabbinic prohibitions against shaming another often lie in stark contrast to stories of shaming and competition among those very same rabbis. This class asks the overarching question – what is the Talmud trying to tell us about shame/shaming?

Rabbi Lev is an associate professor of rabbinic texts (Talmud and Midrash) at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. She has taught adult education in many contexts including synagogues, Jewish Alive & American, the Feminist Center of the American Jewish Congress, Me'ah, and Bat Kol: A Feminist House of Study, which she co-founded. She delights in teaching.

Wisdom of the (S)Ages: Moral Instruction from the Bible to the Rabbis with Dr. Ely Levine

1:00-2:00 PM

Wisdom Literature aims to provide its readers with practical and often moral instruction. Jewish Wisdom literature includes the Biblical books of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes, the Wisdom of Ben Sira, and Pirkei Avot. We will explore selections from this Jewish wisdom, trying to understand the moral sensibilities of our ancestors and looking for tidbits useful in our own lives.

HZAD - 6:30 or 7 PM - each week (see section below)

Tuesday

D'var T'filah with Hazzan Vogel

After 7 AM Minyan – Hazzan Vogel will offer brief insights into the spiritual dynamics of prayer focusing each time on why prayer is difficult and what we can do about it. Congregants are invited to continue our exploration of this subject over breakfast in the Rudofker Library.

Wednesday

Tisch with Rabbi Shawn

After 7 AM Minyan – Join Rabbi Shawn for breakfast and inspirational learning. In this class we will engage in weekly Halakha (legal text) study from the Rambam's Mishneh Torah. Good food, great company, and a bisseel of learning too!

Parshat Hashavua for the Sandwich Generation with Rabbi Shawn

11 AM

What is the The Sandwich Generation? It typically refers to those of us that are sandwiched between the needs of their children and those of their aging parents. If you are between the ages of 45ish and 65ish, together, we will focus on topics that are relevant today. Are you dealing with, aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness, and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas? If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us!

Siddur Study with Dr. Sara H. Cohen

March 4, 11, 18, 25 and April 1

11 AM

An in-depth, multi-faceted study of our Shabbat liturgy. By “unpacking” the many layers of meaning and commentary, by delving into the history, background and lives of the great intellectual giants who wrote our prayers, we gain a keener understanding of their meaning and of the values and ideals inherent in them. Through this sharper knowledge and understanding, we discover what we stand for as Jews.

In prior years, we covered the Birchot HaShachar, P’sukei D’Zimrah, the Shma and its Blessings and the Amidah (Shmoneh Esrai). We begin this semester with Kreeat HaTorah (Torah Reading service) and Haftarah, the Musaf service (additional service) and the concluding prayers for Shabbat morning.

Join us, learn and study with us so that you can connect more readily and easily to our heritage and keep our legacy alive and thriving.

Reel Torah

The Ten Commandments! Noah! Monty Python's Life of Brian! The Prince of Egypt! These blockbuster movies have little in common other than that they are Bible movies. Come see how these movies and others use the Bible as a vehicle to communicate a message, and how the way of doing so has changed over the 120 years of the movie biz. You'll laugh, you'll cry; we'll serve popcorn!

March 23 – Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (1999)

April 6 – King of Kings (1927)
