

Adult Education Schedule

Har Zion After Dark

Each Wednesday night this year HZT is the place to be for Jewish learning. We will offer authors presenting their books as part of the “Open a Book Open Your Mind” series, speakers and mini-classes. We will begin classes each week at 6:30 PM – the “Open a Book” authors will begin at 7 PM. Light refreshment will be provided.

Wednesday, April 3, 7 PM

Open A Book...Open Your Mind author Tova Mirvis, “The Book of Separation”

Cost: $18 RSVP here Sponsored by Sisterhood and the JFGRS

Wednesday, April 10, 6:30-8 PM

Noam Zion

The Guide to the Perplexed Seder Leader – How to Customize the Haggadah

The Rabbis expected much of the conductor of a seder – to be a master of ceremonies, a parent educator and a symposium/talk show moderator. The haggadah can be confusing and boring when recited, but it can be empowering when treated as a how-to manual and when one learns how to skip judiciously and supplement for variety and depth. For example, using contemporary artwork we can engage participants in the politics and psychology of the four sons and DAUGHTERS. Many handouts as well as signed copies of the author's two haggadot A Different Night: The Family Participation Haggadah and A Night to Remember: The Haggadah of Contemporary Voices will be available.

Wednesdays, May 1, 8, 15, 29

6:30-7:30 PM (early session)

Dr. Michael Schatz

Part 2: History of Jewish Philadelphia: Jewish Neighborhoods in Philadelphia

In these four weeks we will pick up where we left off in the fall (we will recap!). We will trace the patterns of migration of the children of Jewish immigrants as they moved out of South Philadelphia toward Strawberry Mansion, West Philly, Wynnefield, and Logan. Then we will delve into the “Third Settlement”- neighborhoods close to the edge of the city that were built up after the second World War, and the Jewish communities that formed in West Oak Lane, Northeast Philadelphia, and more. Jews moved slowly to the suburbs in Philadelphia, only settling in Cheltenham and parts of Lower Merion in significant numbers before 1970. We'll look at the evolution of these communities, and then finish with a discussion of the new realities of outer ring suburbanization, resettlement of the city, and the impact of immigration from the former Soviet Union, the resurgence of Orthodox Judaism, and Jewish rise to prominence in politics and philanthropy. We will also devote a session to the history of Jewish Education in Philadelphia.

Dr. Michael Schatz is a career Jewish educator and teaches in the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School. He is a past president of the Jewish Educators Assembly and holds degrees in education and Jewish studies. He gives tours and speaks about the history of Jewish Philadelphia, managing a Facebook page called "Philadelphia Jewish History Tours," where he posts regularly about the fascinating and deep roots of our city.

Talmud with Rabbi Sarra Lev, PhD

11:15 AM

“One who shames another in public – it is as if he or she has spilled blood.”

“Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai says: It is better for a person to throw themselves into a burning oven than to publicly shame another.”

The rabbinic prohibitions against shaming another often lie in stark contrast to stories of shaming and competition among those very same rabbis. This class begins by examining texts on monetary compensation for shaming (Who must pay? How much? For what kinds of shaming?) and then moves on to examine texts that require shaming another, and stories of rabbis shaming one another. The course asks the overarching question – what is the Talmud trying to tell us about shame/shaming?

Sarra Lev is an associate professor of rabbinic texts (Talmud and Midrash) at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. She has taught adult education in many contexts including synagogues, Jewish Alive & American, the Feminist Center of the American Jewish Congress, Me'ah, and Bat Kol: A Feminist House of Study, which she co-founded.

Parashat Hashavuah for the Sandwich Generation with Rabbi Shawn

11 AM

Rabbi Shawn will briefly summarize the parsha. He will then bring one or more contemporary interpretations of the text for us to study and discuss. This class is designed for the "Sandwich Generation" student.

The Sandwich Generation typically refers to those that are sandwiched between the needs of their children and those of their aging parents. However, this group is not limited to these issues. If you are between the ages of 45ish and 65ish, we will focus on topics that are relevant today. Are you dealing with, aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness, and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas?

If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us! We will vary between meeting in the evenings, mornings and in the afternoons. At times, we will have a guest speaker and at other times meetings will be lay-led. If you would like to receive information about upcoming programs, please email Patty Grobman - pgrobman@harziontemple.org.
