

The Fishman Institute of Har Zion Temple

launches the 2008-09 season of the Wednesday Evening Lecture Series

Election '08

The Jewish Vote, Past and Present

American Jewish Values in Past Presidential Elections and November 2008

Wednesdays, September 10, 17 and 24, 7:30 PM

Two lectures and a panel discussion

September 10 and 17

The History of the Jewish Vote in America: Is there a dichotomy between Jewish values and their fulfillment as represented historically by voting patterns?

Dr. Jerry M. Kutnick, Dean for Academic Affairs and Director of the Samuel Netzky Division of Continuing Education, Associate Professor of History and Jewish Thought at Gratz College.

September 24

Panel Discussion featuring Scott Feigelstein, Director of PA/Southern NJ Chapter of the Republican Jewish Coalition and Dr. Michael B. Levy from the National Jewish Democratic Council.

Moderated by Beryl Dean

It is suggested that you attend the lectures in preparation for the panel discussion.

These programs are free and open to the entire community, however registration is required. Please register by email to hzt@harziontemple.org, or call the synagogue office, 610-667-5000.