Six Months

Message from

Rabbi Seth Haaz

On February 1, I celebrated my first six months here at Har Zion, and I now eagerly jump into these next six months. But, before I do, I want to share with you some of things that give me energy and confidence in the future of our community.

If you are not intimately involved with our synagogue on a frequent basis, you might not have felt the spirit of freshness, innovation, and flexibility that permeates our hallways.

Members of the Board of Directors have begun a conversation about how to improve our governance structure to better suit the needs of our synagogue. Cantor Vogel continues to experiment with different forms of musical accompaniment on Friday nights, and other alternative, creative prayer opportunities for Friday night and Saturday morning are in the works.

New classes and dynamic discussions spearheaded by Rabbi Shawn and Norman Einhorn have cultivated a growing community of adult learners and teen learners, and our staff has been reimagining the Bar and Bat Mitzvah program and the arc of Jewish education for our children and families.

Preschool and religious school parents have initiated a conversation about family services for the High Holy Days, volunteers eagerly participate in our Ritual Committee which has been infused with new energy, and a diverse group of congregants will soon be coming together to offer feedback and suggestions to enhance the Shabbat morning experience at Har Zion.

The reinvigorated Men's Club has

PASSOVER . . .

Kashrut for Pesah

Following is a summary of the decisions of the Committee on Jewish Law and Standards (CJLS) of the Rabbinical Assembly pertaining to Passover foods, dishes, and utensils. Kosher le-Pesah labels that do not bear the name of a rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or which are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting your rabbi.

Prohibited foods include the following: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffees containing cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol.

Most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods (kitniyot) to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans and peas; however, string beans are permitted). The CJLS has ruled unanimously that peanuts and peanut oil are permissible. Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid, the use of legumes in a form other than their natural state, for example: corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult a member of the clergy for guidance in the use of these products.

PERMITTED FOODS: A. The following foods require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: all baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah); canned or bottled fruit juices (These juices are often clarified with kitniyot which are not listed among the ingredients. However, if one knows there are no such agents, the juice may be purchased prior to Pesah without a kosher le-Pesah label); wine; vinegar; liquor; oils; dried fruits; candy; chocolate flavored milk; ice cream; yogurt, and soda.

B. The following processed foods (canned, bottled or frozen) require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased during Pesah: milk, butter, juices, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in Category C.

C. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (however, be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea (not herbal tea); salt; pepper, natural spices; frozen fruit juices with no additives; frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes see above); milk; butter; cottage cheese; frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives).

D. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (for legumes see above), eggs, fresh fish, and fresh meat.

DETERGENTS: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher le-Pesah label.

MEDICINE: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guidelines should be followed: if the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used on Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult the clergy. In all cases, capsules are preferable to pills.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS: The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

A. EARTHENWARE (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

B. METAL (wholly made of metal) UTENSILS USED IN FIRE (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots should not be

Sell Your Hametz

An integral part of the pre-Passover planning involves the selling of one's hametz. According to Jewish law, we are supposed to rid ourselves from all hametz and utensils which have been used over the course of the year during Passover. The procedure is simple. We follow the custom of selling our hametz and utensils to a non-Jew. In this manner, the Biblical injunction regarding hametz is respected.

In order to facilitate the proceedings, kindly complete the form below and return it to Laurie Albert in the synagogue office.

Let me take this opportunity, while well in advance, to wish you and yours an enjoyable and happy Passover.

Rabbi Seth Haaz, Senior Rabbi

I hereby authorize Rabbi Haaz to sell my hametz. I understand that the hametz will no longer be in my possession from Friday, April 19 at 8:30 AM until Saturday, April 27 at 8:45 PM.

Note: If there are others for whom you wish to sell hametz, please provide names and addresses and their authorization.

used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

C. OVENS AND RANGES: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be put through the self-cleaning cycle according to the manufacturer's instructions. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens.

Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned, and then two cups of water should be placed inside. Then turn the oven on until one cup of water has boiled away. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered for Pesah.

D. GLASSWARE: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours. The other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah, or putting them through a dishwasher.

Glass cookware: There is a difference of opinion as to whether this item must be kashered. One opinion is that it must be kashered. After a thorough cleansing, there should be water boiled in it, which will overflow the rim. The other opinion is that only a thorough cleansing is required. Glass bakeware, like metal bakeware, may not be kashered.

E. DISHWASHER: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. TABLES, CLOSETS, AND COUNTERS: If used with hametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. KITCHEN SINK: A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning and then pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

I. HAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS: Non-Passover dishes, pots, and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked in order to prevent accidental use.

TIKKUN OLAM . . .

Message from Norma Dworkin and Melissa Sayer, Co-Chairs

Tikkun Olam continues to be a force for good. For those that missed it, our 2019 MLK Day of Service was tremendous. Bitter cold temperatures did not stop 200+ volunteers from showing up ready to roll up their sleeves (literally, in the case of 36 blood donors). We want to thank Gavi, Jane, Emily, Phyllis, Nelly and all the maintenance and security staff for their help in ensuring this day was a memorable success!

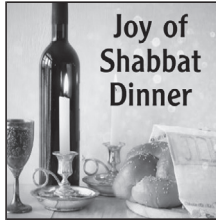

Services are being brought to Bryn Mawr Terrace and Saunders House both in person by our volunteers and now Live Stream to benefit those less mobile.

Tu'BiShvat seders were recently held at Saunders House, Bryn Mawr Terrace and Brith Shalom.

Rabbi Shawn led a meaningful and joyous Seder in celebration of TuB'Shvat for Saunders House residents. All who came enjoyed!!

Behind the Scenes of Israel's 2019 Elections

Daniel Steiner served as an IDF combat officer and unit commander, and is now in the Reserves. In the last 20 years, he has served as an educator and Head of School both in Israel and the United States, and takes particular pride in having created a pluralistic school in Israel. He is currently serving as the WZO Shaliach at Beth Tfiloh School and Synagogue in Baltimore Maryland, but his home is in Haifa, Israel.

brought together long-time members, new members, and even non-members at several great social events – I was fortunate to enjoy firsthand the high level of tennis that our members play at the first Annual Men’s Club Tennis Outing. With all of these wonderful changes, Har Zion continues to boast a fantastic preschool, a dynamic Sisterhood, tremendous support to Israel, and the most consistent and most welcoming morning and evening minyanim in town. We have so many things of which we should be proud, and it is clear that the best is yet to come.

My greatest blessing over these first six months has been meeting our congregants and understanding the level of participation and leadership that Har Zion members have in the larger community. If there are organizations that run well or do phenomenal work in the greater Philadelphia area, you can be sure that Har Zion members are the driving forces behind those achievements. I am eager to find ways to connect our mission as a synagogue community with the great work that our members are already doing outside the walls of our sacred, spiritual home.

I look forward to bringing your gifts, talents, and passions to Har Zion, and the blessings of Jewish faith, wisdom, and community to your diverse interests. Please know that my primary goal over the next year is to continue to learn about you and what inspires you, so that I can connect you more deeply to God and to our community. I know that you will make your own, unique mark on our community that will bring blessing to so many and help to establish our Har Zion synagogue as a model for dynamic, vibrant Jewish community for the coming decades. Thank you for giving of yourselves over the past six months to strengthen our synagogue, welcome new members, support those going through challenging times, and celebrate with those in moments of joy. I am excited for us to grow together.

The Guide to the Perplexed Seder Leader –
How to Customize the Haggadah

The Rabbis expected much of the conductor of a seder – to be a master of ceremonies, a parent educator and a symposium/talk show moderator. The haggadah can be confusing and boring when recited, but it can be empowering when treated as a how-to manual and when one learns how to skip judiciously and supplement for variety and depth. For example, using contemporary artwork, we can engage participants in the politics and psychology of the four sons and DAUGHTERS. Many handouts and copies of the author's two haggadot will be available.

New Learning Opportunities

Exploring Jewish Views of the Afterlife: Traditional and Contemporary Perspectives with Dr. Simcha Raphael Tuesdays, March 12, 26, April 9, 10-11:30 AM

An exploration of Jewish afterlife texts spanning three millennia of history. As travelers through time, we shall enter the worlds of Torah, Talmud, Midrash, Zohar and Hasidic tales investigating diverse ways Jews have understood the enigmatic mystery of death and the world beyond. Searching for spiritual renewal of traditional teachings, we shall use these texts for reflection and discussion discovering practical guidelines for responding to the human encounter with death – personally, and in our families and communities.

Simcha Raphael, PhD is the Founding Director of the DA'AT Institute for Death Awareness, Advocacy and Training. Ordained as a Rabbinic Pastor by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, he is Adjunct Faculty at LaSalle University and works as a psychotherapist and spiritual director in Philadelphia.

Open a Book...Open Your Mind* Brings Interesting Authors to Har Zion Temple

Message from Susan Kochman

This April marks the end of the sixth year of Open a Book... Open Your Mind.

I know time flies but this is ridiculous! Since our humble and nerve wracking beginning, Sheila and I have attended five Jewish Book Council conferences hearing over 1000 authors give their two-minute shpiel. Some still stick in my mind – Dr. Ruth Westheimer, and especially the tall handsome single former Marine. Listening is the easy part. The hard part starts when we come back and have two weeks to choose our authors for the following year. Sometimes it's like putting a square peg in a round hole. Who did we like, who would fit our times, who wants to come to Penn Valley? We have a color-coded system using post-its, it works well until we forget which color means good, bad, or maybe!

Over the last six years, we have had all genres of books. Authors of fiction and nonfiction, history, Jewish experiences, entertainment, the Holocaust, health, cooking and kids have all presented at Har Zion. Who can forget the singing chef, the beautiful book of shoes, the Rabbi and Senator that sleep together and how to cook for love? Some of our favorites have made repeat performances. Ron Balson, Pam Jenoff, and B.A. Shapiro must like us since they keep coming back. We have skyped and have met out of the Har Zion building. We are always looking for ways to attract attendees.

Three of our recent authors are award-winning. Frances Klagsbrun won the Everett Family award from JBC for the Lioness, Ariel Burger won the JBC Sara Berenson Stone for Witness, and Ron Balson won the Book Club award for The Girl from Berlin.

As I have said in the past, this very important program would not happen without the help of our supporters. Not just the financial ones, but also a great working committee and the great staff. Nothing is complete without the help of Jane Fetscher Kontopodias and Rabbi Shawn SimonHazani, our partner in crime.

And now for the number game:

Authors – 58

Sponsors – 59

Seats – 4000

Open a Book...Open Your Mind is a labor of love for Sheila and me. It has become a community program, even taking us to partner with the Barbara and Harvey Brodsky Enrichment Center. Our goal and dream is to see this program continue to grow and thrive.

Starting March 31, we have a week of authors. There is something for everyone: a murder mystery, a book of secrets, and a book of a secret deal.

Won't you please become part of our numbers?

Hope to see you there!

HAZAAC Har Zion Active Adults Club

Immortality: Blessing or Curse?

By Gerald Spector, HAZAAC Chair

Imagine a person who lives forever, a person who is unable to die, one who can regain a youthful body and begin life all over again in a different time and place yet remember all past experiences. Is such a person blessed or cursed? Rachel, the protagonist in Dara Horn's novel Eternal Life, is such a person.

A widowed great-grandmother now living in present-day New York, Rachel is over 2,000 years old. She was born in Jerusalem during the time of the Second Temple and cannot die. Whenever her body is consumed by fire, she awakens in a different time and placed in her 18-year-old body ready to live again with full knowledge of all the events and relationships of her previous lives. In each iteration of her life, Rachel marries and has children; some are a source of pride while some are disappointments. As she watches them age and knowing that she will outlive them all, there comes a point when she decides that it is time to move on to the next iteration of her life.

Considering eternal life from the perspective of someone like Rachel, would immortality be a blessing or a curse? What would make immortality a blessing and, conversely, what would make immortality a curse? What conditions would drive a decision to stay in a life or move on to the next iteration? These questions will be addressed at the Wednesday, March 13 meeting of the Har Zion Active Adults Club (HAZAAC). Following a luncheon at noon, Rabbi Shawn SimonHazani, and Norman Einhorn will lead an interactive discussion of Dara Horn's novel, Eternal Life. Everyone is invited to attend this program. Reservations are requested for the luncheon by Monday, March 11. Please call Emily Berton at (610) 667-5000 to make reservations. There is a $10 charge for the luncheon, payable at the door.

Where Are We Going This Month?

Message from Debbie Folz,
Director of Early Childhood Education

A field trip is a great way to make learning come to life by taking children out of their normal environment and allowing them to have hands-on experiences at different locations. Even children as young as pre-school can benefit from educational trips where they can see things up close and learn more about the world around them. Done right, field trips can be a powerful component of a well-rounded instructional program and that is exactly what our Prachim (Pre-K) and Gan children experience every year. The most popular destinations – museums, zoos, outdoor venues, and performances – have a natural fit with science, history, and the arts.

Our teachers create memories by reinforcing their curriculum. These trips provide students with important cognitive and affective benefits. After learning about Fall, Sukkot and Thanksgiving the children went to the Colonial Plantation where they saw what life was like in Colonial Times including working the farm, what things from the farm were used for and what their homes were like. The year's curriculum will determine where they will go on field trips. The Prachim and Gan teachers are always planning new and exciting outings for their children.

After reading many different versions of folk and fairy tales, they will bring in special programs such as a showing of The Brothers Grimm Version of "The Brave Little Tailor" from the Enchantment Theater Company. Their unique style of performance will bring the story to life in a way that will inspire the children to use their imagination and stimulate them. The children will bring back to their classrooms different ways to explore the story. Another one of their favorites is the Garden State Discovery Museum, an exciting and fun-filled interactive museum. During the year they will go also to the Art Museum after a month long study of different artists from Chagal to Jackson Pollack. In honor of Earth day and after learning about the environment and ways to help it, the Gan class will go to Riverbend and the Prachim to Waterworks, fostering the appreciation and understanding needed to protect our natural world and teaching us all about how to preserve water. The Academy of Natural Sciences was a big hit when Gan learned about Dinosaurs and this year they might go to the Insectarium where they will see up close and personal the insects they will learn about in class. All of these trips appeal to varied learning styles, helping children to succeed whether they are visual, auditory or kinetic learners.

Who wouldn't want to be a child in our Prachim and Gan programs, where the lessons they learn in school come to life thanks to the hard work and planning of their incredible teachers?

I know I would!

IN MEMORY OF

Dr. Robert Ford

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.

John Marks, MD COLORECTAL SURGEON

Whether you need a screening, initial consult or second opinion, the team at Lankenau Medical Center, part of Main Line Health, is known for its expertise in colorectal care. A heritage built by Dr. John Marks—one of the world's foremost colorectal surgeons whose experience includes more than 3,000 minimally invasive colorectal procedures—and his father before him, whose techniques remain the gold standard in colorectal surgery. What's more, with his partner Dr. Henry Schoonyoung, sphincter preservation here at Lankenau is achieved 93 percent of the time vs. the national average of 40 to 60 percent. Which means most of our patients avoid a permanent colostomy bag.

So whatever your colorectal concerns, let's face them together. Here at Lankenau Medical Center. Visit mainlinehealth.org/markscolorrectal or call 610.645.9093
