It Feels Like Spring at Har Zion

by Rabbi Seth Haaz

I often use my space in the bi-monthly bulletin to share my enthusiasm for upcoming programs that you should not miss at Har Zion. However, in this article, I choose to look back and celebrate the immediate past month because a number of the seeds that we have been planting have begun to sprout shoots, leaves, flowers, and fruits. While it is still freezing cold outside as I type these words, I feel as though Spring has come early to Har Zion. In the past month, we have seen new initiatives germinate and burst through the topsoil. JEWELS, our active adults group, gathered for the second time and took a trip to NYC to visit the Auschwitz Exhibit. The Torah for Teens group led by Rabbi Shawn and Dr. Levine took over the Shabbat morning Torah service for the first time. Family Friendly Fridays met for the first time to offer a beautiful Shabbat experience tailored specifically for elementary aged children and their parents. And, we welcomed our first interfaith organization partner, Overbrook Presbyterian Church, to join us for Friday evening services and dinner (known affectionately as Joy of Shabbat). And this was all just in one week!

In one week, we saw Har Zion's influence and impact blossom in our community and beyond our community. We celebrated new the engagement of our seniors, our teen and elementary youth and their respective families, and our faith partners. This one week does not even capture the tremendous programming of Men's Club and Sisterhood, the wild success of the MLK Day of Service, the consistent efforts of the Caring Connection, the inspiration drawn from our robust Lifelong Learning Department, or the education provided and social events coordinated by the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School and the Noreen Cook Center for Early Childhood Education. While you may not feel it yet when you bundle up to walk outside, Spring has come to Har Zion. Please stroll through our garden to learn about and appreciate the ways in which we are growing and help us to plant more seeds. What would you like to see blossom at Har Zion? I look forward hearing from you and tending our garden together.

Spiritual Journeys: Better Together Sunday, March 29, 10:30 AM

How do we best deepen our engagement with a spiritual life? How can we avoid pitfalls, keep our motivation high, challenge our long-held ideas and continue to grow? Jewish tradition encourages us not to do it alone, but to embark on our spiritual journeys with others. This can be complicated. Together we will explore Jewish teachings about how to develop spiritual practice and cultivate spiritual companionship for our own sake and in order to bring greater love and wisdom to the world.

Join us for this special program. Co-sponsored by the Department of Lifelong Learning and the IJS (Institute for Jewish Spirituality) Kivvun 3+ Reunion.

Rabbi Lisa Goldstein is a master teacher and facilitator with almost 25 years of executive experience. Rabbi Goldstein has taught Jewish mindfulness meditation in various contexts for almost 20 years and most recently, served as the Executive Director of the Institute for Jewish Spirituality.

Darchei Noam – Teen Torah Readers

This is a new program here at Har Zion to welcome teens to read Torah in our Shabbat morning services, and to encourage them in developing their skill as ba'alei kri'a, Torah readers. We launched this program on January 11, inviting seven teens to read from the Torah. All of the readers did beautifully.

We have two more great opportunities for teens to participate this spring, and we know we can replicate the success of our first!

As this program grows it will include a social aspect. On Shabbat mornings, those students with upcoming readings will meet together to help each other practice and learn.

To encourage our students to keep working, there is a series of rewards built in for reading more.

If your teenager would like to read Torah with us, please contact Dr. Ely Levine (elevine@harziontemple.org) to sign up. We are happy to provide tools and help as well.

Multifaith Engagement at Har Zion

Message from Allyson Zacharoff

The warmth of the Har Zion community was strong on January 10 for Joy of Shabbat, when we were joined by Pastor Adam of Overbrook Presbyterian Church, one of his adult congregants, and a group of his young people from the church. For those who did not get a chance to join us that evening, Pastor Adam had reached out to us following the terrible attacks against Jews during Hanukkah and expressed his urgency to make sure the young people in his community come to know the Jewish community. We were so grateful to have them join us for prayers and dinner that night.

As we look ahead, a lot of exciting multifaith engagement opportunities are in the works. Keep an eye out on Har Zion social media for a series of videos about multifaith engagement (follow our page at www.facebook.com/groups/hzmultifaith), plus some exciting event announcements set to hit the airwaves before you know it.

Happy Pesah, and a blessed spring to all.

To talk to Allyson about multifaith dialogue, multifaith families, or any related topics, please feel free to e-mail her at azacharoff@harziontemple.org.

TIKKUN OLAM . . .

A Glimpse from Our 2020 MLK Day of Service at Har Zion

Dr. Martin Luther King challenges us to reflect on “life’s most persistent and urgent question: What are you doing for others?” His legacy inspires us to be of service to those in need....that is being human.

Tikkun Olam continues to be a force for good. For those that missed it, our 2020 MLK Day of Service was tremendous. Bitter cold temperatures did not stop 200+ volunteers from showing up ready to roll up their sleeves (literally, in the case of 36 blood donors). We want to thank Gavi, Jane, Emily, Phyllis and all the maintenance and security staff for their help in ensuring this day was a memorable success!

Community volunteers and congregants of all ages took part on January 20 and these are a few of their responses to the question, “What does the MLK Day of Service at Har Zion mean to you?”

“This is one of my favorite days at HZ. I love to see our community working with others to make this world just a little bit better.” – Carol KK

“MLK Day was really fun – I’m tired now but in a good way.” – 10 year-old volunteer

“A day ON rather than a day OFF – a chance to make a difference even if it’s a small one.” – Graciela P, college student

“A large part of Jewish life is giving back. MLK Day represents a wonderful opportunity for people of all types and religions to do for other in need.” – Allen B

“A day to honor the efforts made by previous generations to the vision of equality and to reflect on the work still left to do.” – Colin W

“MLK day means to me that you commemorate MLK so we can remember all the amazing things he did. As a Jew we are sometimes being hated on and the same thing happened to African Americans. So MLK means a lot to me.” – Talia H, age 11

Tikkun Olam at Har Zion will continue to support and organize this special day always with the goal of doing more. Be on the lookout for upcoming Tikkun Olam-sponsored opportunities:

PASSOVER . . .

Kashrut for Pesah

Following is a summary of the decisions of the Committee on Jewish Law and Standards (CJLS) of the Rabbinical Assembly pertaining to Passover foods, dishes, and utensils. Kosher le-Pesah labels that do not bear the name of a rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or which are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting your rabbi.

Prohibited foods include the following: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffees containing cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol.

Most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods (kitniyot) to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans and peas; however, string beans are permitted). The CJLS has ruled unanimously that peanuts and peanut oil are permissible. Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid, the use of legumes in a form other than their natural state, for example: corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult a member of the clergy for guidance in the use of these products.

PERMITTED FOODS: A. The following foods require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: all baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah); canned or bottled fruit juices (These juices are often clarified with kitniyot which are not listed among the ingredients. However, if one knows there are no such agents, the juice may be purchased prior to Pesah without a kosher le-Pesah label); wine; vinegar; liquor; oils; dried fruits; candy; chocolate flavored milk; ice cream; yogurt, and soda.

B. The following processed foods (canned, bottled or frozen) require a kosher le-Pesah label if purchased during Pesah: milk, butter, juices, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in Category C.

C. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (however, be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea (not herbal tea); salt; pepper, natural spices; frozen fruit juices with no additives; frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes see above); milk; butter; cottage cheese; frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives).

D. The following foods require no kosher le-Pesah label if purchased before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (for legumes see above), eggs, fresh fish, and fresh meat.

DETERGENTS: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher le-Pesah label.

MEDICINE: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guidelines should be followed: if the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used on Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult the clergy. In all cases, capsules are preferable to pills.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS: The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

A. EARTHENWARE (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

B. METAL (wholly made of metal) UTENSILS USED IN FIRE (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots should not be

Sell Your Hametz

An integral part of the pre-Passover planning involves the selling of one's hametz. According to Jewish law, we are supposed to rid ourselves from all hametz and utensils which have been used over the course of the year during Passover. The procedure is simple. We follow the custom of selling our hametz and utensils to a non-Jew. In this manner, the Biblical injunction regarding hametz is respected.

If you are unable to come into the synagogue to sell your hametz in person, kindly complete the form below and return it to me in the synagogue office.

It is customary to make a donation along with selling your hametz.

Let me take this opportunity, while well in advance, to wish you and yours an enjoyable and happy Passover.

Dr. Ely Levine, Ritual Coordinator

I hereby authorize Dr. Levine to sell my hametz. I understand that the hametz will no longer be in my possession from Wednesday, April 8 at 11 AM until Thursday, April 16 at 8:35 PM.

Address _____

Note: If there are others for whom you wish to sell hametz, please provide names and addresses and their authorization.

used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

C. OVENS AND RANGES: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be put through the self-cleaning cycle according to the manufacturer's instructions. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens.

Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned, and then two cups of water should be placed inside. Then turn the oven on until one cup of water has boiled away. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered for Pesah.

D. GLASSWARE: Drinking glasses require only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah, or putting them through a dishwasher.

Glass cookware: There is a difference of opinion as to whether this item must be kashered. One opinion is that it must be kashered. After a thorough cleansing, there should be water boiled in it, which will overflow the rim. The other opinion is that only a thorough cleansing is required. Glass bakeware, like metal bakeware, may not be kashered.

E. DISHWASHER: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, the drain/filter should be emptied and cleaned, and a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. TABLES, CLOSETS, AND COUNTERS: If used with hametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. KITCHEN SINK: A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning and then pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

I. HAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS: Non-Passover dishes, pots, and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked in order to prevent accidental use.

If you are not comfortable with pouring boiling water, you can use a steamer. If you have any questions about this or other topics, please reach out to Dr. Ely Levine, elevine@harziontemple.org.

What is The Sandwich Generation? It typically refers to those of us that are sandwiched between the needs of their children and those of their aging parents. If you are between the ages of 45ish and 65ish, together, we will focus on topics that are relevant today. Are you dealing with aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas? If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us!

April 21 – Moses' Final Days - "Do Not Go Gentle into the Good Night"

In exploring Moses' response to his imminent death in Torah and Midrash we see that Moses did not "go gentle into the night" but did "rage, rage against the dying of the light." From Moses we learn to meet death with honesty and spiritual equanimity.

Reb Simcha Raphael, Ph.D. is Founding Director of the DA'AT Institute for Death Awareness, Advocacy and Training. He is Adjunct Professor in the Department of Religion and Theology at LaSalle University, and works as a psychotherapist and bereavement counselor, affiliated with Mount Airy Counseling Center, in Philadelphia. Ordained by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, as a Rabbinic Pastor, he is author of numerous publications on death and afterlife including the groundbreaking Jewish Views of the Afterlife. The True Meaning of Team

Message from Debbie Folz,
Director of Early Childhood Education

I cannot believe that it is March already. It's so cliché, but where has the time gone? The first day of preschool is always so exciting, but also a little nerve wracking for some parents, children, teachers and me. Some children are running in like they never left, and some parents are here before we even open the building. The teachers are working hours and hours, cleaning, organizing and planning. Each year, although a teacher might teach the same age group, there are many variables when planning the year.

The classroom dynamics can change just from the personalities and needs of the individual children. We have new parents who are dropping off their little ones for the first time and it seems harder for mom and dad than the child. My concern is always making sure that everyone is not only happy, but feels secure in the knowledge that the school is safe and providing the utmost care for the children. Another integral part of my job is to make sure that the teachers not only have the necessary supplies, but they are empowered and valued throughout the year.

When I give a tour or talking to other Directors, I admit that I am a big bragger! I truly believe we have the best preschool in the area. I walk around each day and not only am I immensely proud of all the big and little accomplishments of our children, but I am amazed at my staff. I say "my" because they are my friends, my equal, my team and my support. It was especially true this year when my son unexpectedly died the first day of school. As parents, you get to see the teachers working with your children, but I get to see "the behind the scenes" action. The endless hours of planning, just the right developmentally appropriate activity, all the times they run to the various stores to get just that right supply, cleaning up their rooms after they have been played in can be exhausting. These unique people are committed to instilling values, love, and respect in these little minds that come to their classrooms each day. I also am so fortunate to spend each day with individuals who show respect and care towards one another. This is not just a job, it is a community where the staff help each other, sometimes on a daily basis and consistently work as a team to create such an energized work environment.

At The Noreen Cook Center for Early Childhood Education our teachers stay year after year due to our unique and special preschool community. So, yes I brag a lot! Although we are large in number, we have a small and homey atmosphere, where all our kids know the teachers and all the teachers know the kids. We provide a curriculum that is engaging, experiential, appropriate and most importantly fun! I brag about how "my team" are true mensches and professionals. Next time you see one of our NCCECE teachers, please let them know how extraordinary and valued they are.

"A teacher affects eternity. He can never tell where his influence stops." – Henry Adams

SISTERHOOD . . .

A Jewel in the Har Zion Temple Crown

Message from Lynne Landsburg, Sisterhood President

This summer, Sunday, July 12 thru Wednesday, July 15, 2020, Women's League for Conservative Judaism will be having its International Convention in suburban Chicago. This year's theme is Sisters Journeying Together. At the convention, Sisterhoods who meet the necessary criteria will be eligible for the 2020 Jewels in the Crown award. Har Zion Sisterhood has won this award at past conventions and I know we will win the award again this summer. In looking over the criteria for this award it again reminds me of all the wonderful ways Har Zion Sisterhood is truly a jewel in the Har Zion Temple crown.

Sheila Kliger and Susan Kochman, past Sisterhood presidents, received the Jewels in the Crown Award at Convention in the summer of 2017.

Our Sisterhood provides so many opportunities for any Sisterhood member to learn, socialize, have fun, volunteer, contribute charitably, pray, and support all aspects of our Har Zion community.

See our list of upcoming events and join us so you too will feel like a jewel in the Har Zion crown. If anyone is interested in finding out about this summer's convention, look at the Women's League for Conservative Judaism website at WLCJ.org or contact me at lpl27@harziontemple.org.

I would like thank Andrea Robbins who once again chaired our fabulous Sisterhood Shabbat weekend where we honored our past presidents and thanks to all the Sisterhood women who took part in Friday night and Saturday morning services. Yasher Koach to all.
