An Unexpected Place

Message from Rabbi Seth Haaz

I was deeply moved by a recent visit to Whitwell, TN with students and families from Lower Merion Area Hebrew High, including a number of members of our extended Har Zion family. Whitwell, TN is a most unexpected place for a Holocaust memorial and research center, and it is the focus of the 2004 documentary Paper Clips. While this was my first experience in Whitwell, our partnership with the people of Whitwell celebrated its eighth year this year under the guidance of Norman Einhorn, Har Zion's Director of Engagement and Programming and Director of LMAHH.

In just a day and a half, those on this year's trip bonded as we shared sacred time and space together and learned about the mitzvah experiences of welcoming guests, caring for the stranger, offering prayer, honoring the memory of those who have died, comforting mourners, and being grateful for the blessings that we have. My experiences with the people of Whitwell and our group from Lower Merion inspired me to deliver a sermon on the immediate Shabbat after our return. A few days later, Norman and I recorded the sermon – please visit our Facebook page (Facebook.com/harziontemple). Thank you for taking the time to listen to my remarks, and I look forward to your thoughts and reactions.

Message from Lee S. Kirschner, President

As my two-year term concludes, I would like to personally thank all of the Officers for their dedication, time, passion and hard work during this exciting time. To Brian Paszamant, David Becher, Jeffrey Barrack, Cindy Reisner, Jay Gorodetzer, Michael Grossman, Debbie Zarwin Rose, Kristy Schulman, Ken Brownstein, Jacob Guzman and Steve Moskowitz - Mazel Tov and Yasher Koach for everything you do at Har Zion Temple! We could not have come this far without all of the efforts of this incredible team of Officers. I thank you, and your Har Zion family thanks you.

A great deal has been accomplished during these past two years. Har Zion hired a fantastic new Rabbi and welcomed his family with help from our outstanding Rabbi Search Committee. 'Meet and Greets' were scheduled at congregant homes with Rabbi Haaz. We look forward to his official Installation this coming November.

New learning programs and enhancing our Religious and Pre-School curriculums were initiated this year. Money has been raised through our various constituent groups like Sisterhood, Men's Club and HSA. Financial support is available for those families in need. An HR Committee was formed. The Board of Directors continues to work on restructuring our governance and how our synagogue functions on a daily basis. This could not have been done without all of our dedicated Officers, volunteers, Clergy, Senior Staff, maintenance and office staff. From the bottom of my heart, I thank each and every one of you!

I have been nominated to serve our congregation for another two-year term as President and am deeply humbled by your vote of confidence. I promise to continue doing the work that needs to be done and am excited about pursuing various new endeavors. All of

DID YOU KNOW . . .

Har Zion Temple is one of the few Conservative synagogues in the area that holds morning and evening services every day of the year. The weekday morning and evening service, or 'minyan', is informal and 'come-as-you-are'. It is an open, welcoming, and appreciative group that draws members and non-members from all over the area.

While some might think minyan intimidating because it is largely done in Hebrew, people wear tefillin (in the morning) and the service moves along quickly with few explanations of the prayers (allowing attendees to get to work or home for dinner), you need no experience and nothing is expected of you in terms of knowledge or practice. The group that gathers is glad just to have you there. Whether you are praying, meditating or lost in thought and reflection, by your very presence, you make a difference. While the morning and evening prayers cover the spectrum of emotions from gratitude to hope, to seeking God's help, there are parts of the service, like Mourner's Kaddish, that cannot be said without a group of ten Jews. We need the help of the Har Zion community to ensure that we always have a minyan for those who need to say Kaddish for the loss of a loved one.

Please support our Har Zion community by being there for those who need us at their most vulnerable time. Join us every day, once a week, or a few times a month. Be part of this important group that reminds us that whatever we are, whatever we are feeling, we are never alone.

The following was written by Sue Ellen Rosenblum, a Har Zion minyan 'regular'.

The Power of Minyan

My path to Minyan started much like most of us. After watching my parents say Kaddish for loved ones long passed, my turn came to fulfill the same promise made to them. They believed in the ritual and the honoring of those loved ones. So, I too, said Kaddish for them.

When I said Kaddish for Dad, I was coming not only for myself, but for Mom, who was not able to come as often. In a way, I was saying Kaddish for both of us, helping Mom honor the man who was her sweetheart since she was 14 years old. But, when I started to come to minyan three years ago when Mom passed, I found the experience to be much different. First, the habit of coming to evening minyan allowed me to start a new pattern after years of caregiving. Lifelong friends came with me at first so I would feel supported. At the same time, I was reacquainted with fellow congregants. Along my eleven-month journey, I was delighted to find new friends, all experiencing loss, although differently. Spouses, partners, children, parents – each loss no less powerful but moving forward in being there for each other.

The power of Kaddish, for me, is that no one says Kaddish alone at minyan. I continue to come to minyan to be there for someone else, as others were there for me. Whether you come one day, in the morning, or in the evening, it makes no difference. Here at Har Zion, each one of us counts...matters...makes a difference, Men and Women. We have the privilege of doing something that can make a difference for someone else. We can be counted in a minyan so someone else can honor a loved one.

Fifteen to twenty minutes in the evening; only a bit longer in the morning – it is fast but meaningful. We are warm and welcoming. Come to minyan, I would be delighted to sit with you.

this is to better our Har Zion community both inside and outside of these walls. There is a new energy and spirit here. All of us want to keep that momentum going as we forge into the future.

Innovative programs, speaker series, art classes, adult Jewish learning, Open a Book... Open your Mind, along with our Annual Fundraising event, where we were entertained and amazed by Oz Pearlman, learning and religious classes, Har Zion is and will continue to be the leader in the Jewish community. We are proud of what we have started and with our new slate of Officers, the hard work will continue for the betterment of Har Zion.

I look forward to working with our newest Officers, our volunteers, our Clergy and our staff to continue making Har Zion the very best that it can be. Our Installation will be taking place on Friday, June 14 in conjunction with our monthly Joy of Shabbat dinner. Looking forward to seeing you there!

Hope, Bryan, Brittany and I wish you a relaxing summer and remember that Har Zion Temple is and will always be here for you – even when you are at the beach!

Soup's On...

We greatly appreciated everyone's overwhelming support of our Sisterhood Mishloah Manot fundraiser. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts ...whether you stuffed, delivered or purchased bags. SISTERHOOD . . .

Sisterhood Past and Present

Message from Lynne Landsburg, Sisterhood President
(This is my sermon from Sisterhood Shabbat, February 2, 2019)

Shabbat Shalom and welcome to Sisterhood Shabbat.

Before I begin, I would like to welcome Lori and Mark Snow. Lori is our Women's League Mid-Atlantic Region President. Thank you for coming. We are very happy you could join us this Shabbat morning. I would also like to say Yasher Kohah to all the Sisterhood women who participated in this Sisterhood Shabbat both last evening and this morning. Everyone did a wonderful job. Also, a special Yasher Kohah and Todah Rabbah to Andrea Robbins who, once again, chaired and organized this special weekend. Thank you, Andrea for all your hard work.

This year's Torah Fund theme is Atid, which means future. While I am always thinking about Sisterhood's future, especially who is going to be the next Sisterhood president, I was interested in learning about our past. Understanding where we began lays the foundation for guiding us into the future.

In the Parshat we read today, the Torah used the word Mishpatim which means ordinances, rather than Mitzvot, which means commandments because all the issues discussed are relevant to society and the interactions among groups, how we live our lives, and how we treat others as well as how we see our role as Jews.

On May 18, 1924, 9 months after Har Zion Temple in Wynnefield was incorporated, 19 women met at the home of Mrs. Charles Stouman. The activities and ideas articulated at that meeting were based on the principals found in Mishpatim. They laid the foundation for the work and influence of Sisterhood that is still in effect today, almost 95 years later. From the beginning, Har Zion Sisterhood women committed themselves to the needs of our congregation, our school, and the community at large. We have grown and expanded our activities and influence, but the core ideas and values are still here.

Lottie Slotman, (or as women were known then by their husband's name), Mrs. David Slotman became Har Zion's first Sisterhood President and on September 1, 1925 Har Zion Sisterhood became affiliated with Women's League Mid-Atlantic Region. Much of what was started by these early women continues today such as the floral fund which provides the bimah flowers for holidays and Shabbat. Decorating the sukkah was also one of Sisterhood's projects we still do today. And never let it be said that in almost 95 years sisterhood has allowed anyone to not be fed. From providing refreshments for the Oneg Shabbat back then to supporting the Shabbat and holiday kiddushes today, from holiday treats for the children to our College Outreach holiday packages for college students away from home, from teas before meetings to meals or refreshments at all our events, Sisterhood is feeding you. The financial support to our synagogue, youth groups, and schools, as well as gifts for our B'nai Mitzvot, Confirmants and Midrasha graduates, messages of congratulation, gratitude, sorrow, or joy, programming along the lines of education, culture, and literature are all activities Sisterhood continues to provide to our community. This was the foundation of Sisterhood.

been an important part of Sisterhood from our beginning. During World War II, our members sold war bonds, created a Red Cross Unit, knitted items to send to soldiers overseas and contributed to many charitable organizations. We continue this today with our donations to Federation, The Braille Institute, Kosher Meals on Wheels, JNF, Masorti, Mazon and Eshel Avraham, our sister synagogue in Israel as well as Rosh Hashannah dinner at Inglis House and chaplaincy at Saunders House and Bryn Mawr Terrace.

In the early 1950s as part of Torah Fund, Har Zion Sisterhood raised significant funds for the Mathilda Schechter Residence Hall at the Jewish Theological Seminary. The women of Har Zion continue to give generously to Torah Fund which now supports all 5 Seminaries of the Conservative Movement. To this day we are consistently one of the largest, if not the largest contributor to Torah Fund in the Mid-Atlantic Region of Women's League, something we should be very proud of.

MEN'S CLUB . . .

Message from

Jordan Landau, Men's Club President

So now that I've had 9-10 months as the new Men's Club President, I feel we are finally kicking it into gear. We have had many successful outings over the past few months: the Golf Tournament, Pub Night, Speaker Series, Poker Night, our Opening Dinner. We've also contributed to a couple of local charities and organizations: Narberth Community Food Bank, MLGBA, the Penn Wynne Civic Association, and Philly Friendship Circle. I hope in the next year to be able to help out more charities and worthy organizations in the area.

On Sunday, March 17 the HZMC had over 50 people attend for the second annual Poker night. It was a great evening of cards and over $2000 was raised for Project H.O.P.E., the Men's Club, and the HSA. A big thank you goes to Jay Gorodetzer and his wife Laura for making dinner for us, and to Samuel Domsy, for running the event along with Jake Guzman and Ken Brownstein.

We also have some fun events coming up: Closing Dinner with guest speaker Howie Roseman, a New York City trip along with the Temple Beth Hillel-Beth El Men's Club, and a new basketball league. I hope to see many of you at these events as they will be a great time!

I am currently working with Main Line Reform Temple, Adath Israel and Temple Beth Hillel-Beth El for future collaborations, and think that as a group some really exciting things can and will happen.

Here are a few ideas for future events that I would love your input and help organizing: Axe throwing, Paintball, Dodge ball, Father/Daughter Dance.

As always please feel free to contact me (jordan.landau@gmail.com) anytime to kick around ideas and thoughts.

Our 6th grade students helped the Men's Club pack candles for the Yom Hashaoah Yellow Candle Campaign.

Connecting With Our Roots

By Gerald Spector

Interest in one's "roots" seems to be a current fad as evidenced by the popularity of the PBS television show Finding Your Roots and the ubiquitous commercials for Ancestry.com. Most American Jews know who their ancestors were; many can easily trace their ancestry back for at least three generations. If we are Ashkenazic, we can trace our ancestry back to a town and country in Central Europe. What may be surprising is that although the city or town we say our ancestors came from may be accurate, the country they came from depends upon when they immigrated.

During the first half of the twentieth century borders of the countries of Central Europe changed several times; cities and their environs changed countries. In 1939, much of Central Europe was in Poland as shown in this map. For example, Vilna, (now in Lithuania, and Lvov (also known as Lemberg, now in Ukraine) were in Poland.

Although we may know much of the curricula vitae of our European ancestors, it is difficult for us to connect with them because we may not know much about what life was like in their communities. Jewish life in Central Europe before World War II will be the subject of HAZAAC's closing event on May 29. Please join us.

TIKKUN OLAM . . .

Tikkun Olam is in a Pickle

Message from Norma Dworkin and Melissa Sayer, Co-chairs

We are indeed in a pickle...“a kosher pickle”. HZT’s Tikkun Olam has evolved over the years to include more activities that touch the lives of our greater community of Jews and non-Jews alike. Last summer, the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County in Upper Darby, was identified as needing up to 200 meals to be served to the surrounding community. These people are not Jewish but are hungry, homeless, and destitute. We have agreed to help prepare and serve dinner four times a year. At each serving, we introduce ourselves as being from HZT and someone offers a prayer of their choice for the meal. For the first two dates that we participated, we brought non-kosher food that had been prepared outside of the synagogue and one vegetarian meal prepared in HZT’s kitchen on MLK Day. When our committee began to review our activities, our members disagreed about whether or not we could, or should, provide food without rabbinic supervision to non-Jews. Because our Jewish values demand that we feed as many hungry people as possible and also uphold the standards of kashrut, Rabbi Haaz describes this disagreement as an argument l’sheim shamayim – an argument for the sake of heaven. Both sides of this argument approach their position with love of people and of Jewish tradition. That said, we do have some decisions to make in the coming year.

If we can provide for two or three people a non-kosher meal for the same price of one kosher meal, what would God say about that?

Is the mitzvah to feed all who are hungry or to keep the laws of kashrut regardless of the cost or who is receiving the food?

How can we do the most good?

Does our affiliation with HZT dictate how we feed the hungry? When we do work in the community, how do we present ourselves and how are we perceived? Can a person who keeps kosher prepare non-kosher food for others in a non-kosher kitchen? Is there a conflict for a person who keeps kosher to buy non-kosher food to give to a non-Jew? Is a meal that is kosher and served in a non-kosher kitchen still kosher?

These and other questions have come up and need to be addressed. Rabbi Haaz has begun to help us reach a consensus on how we can move forward through study and discussion. Conservative Judaism asks us to adapt to our changing times yet still remain observant to our traditions and commitments. Please feel free to give us your feedback and help us to best serve all that are in need...because we truly are in a pickle!

Hazzan Vogel enthusiastically led a joyous Seder with residents of Saunders House and their family and friends. This meaningful and delightful day was lovingly hosted by Shirley Swinger, Bobbi Jaffe, Ellen Haupt, Michelle Pearson and Andy Coren.

Upcoming Tikkun Olam events include:

Mother’s & Father’s Day Toiletry Collection for seniors at the Brith Sholom House – due before Mother’s Day May 12. Drop off in the office.

Shul Stitchers – May 14, June 11 at 11:30 AM; May 23 at 7 PM

Cook for a Friend – May 5 (last Sunday date at 9:30 AM); June 3, July 1, August 5 at 5 PM on Mondays

Cook for the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County – Cook in HZT kitchen on May 14 starting at 4 PM and serve dinner at 6:30 PM on May 15 at the shelter (6310 Market St., Upper Darby). All are welcome to help but must be at least 11 years old (11-17 year olds need to sign a waiver). Please contact Norma (610-547-9448) or Melissa (215-432-7800).

source of pride to our sisterhood. We actually had two gift shops during the time Har Zion had our Radnor location. Today, besides our beautiful physical Gift Shop, we now provide shopping on line, becoming the first sisterhood gift shop in the country to provide this service. Who can forget our own Dorene Karasick launching this endeavor by trying to find a way to get a Kiddush cup at 3 AM in the morning. Many of our activities that benefit Sisterhood as well as Har Zion are funded by the proceeds of our gift shop, so please continue to support this wonderful shop either in person or online.

In 1963, when Har Zion Radnor began it was obvious a Sisterhood was needed there. Har Zion Sisterhood set up an autonomous subsidiary at Radnor with the Radnor president as Vice president of the total Har Zion Sisterhood. The large functions such as Torah Fund, Closing Campaign, and Paid-up Membership luncheon were combined but the Radnor Sisterhood functioned and provided activities in its own right.

In the late 1960s, Sisterhood members began to lead the Friday night Kabbalat Shabbat service for Sisterhood Shabbat which was followed by an oneg. It wasn't until 1976, when Fay Bernstein and Sylvia Stonberg were given the first honors for women and were asked to open the Arc curtain during Saturday morning Shabbat services. One year later, in 1977, women were now allowed to participate in all aspects of religious services and be counted in a minyan, and Elaine Wolpe became the first woman to be called to the Torah for an Aliyah. Since the 1980s, Sisterhood Shabbat has been in its current form with women leading services Friday night and Saturday morning.

For almost 20 years, beginning in the early 1990s Sisterhood ran the "Talk of the Town" craft show. This was a major event which everyone, both inside and outside the Har Zion community looked forward to each year. The proceeds from the craft show went directly into special projects for the synagogue such as re-carpeting the synagogue, redecorating the bathrooms, purchasing chairs and tables for the auditorium, refurbishing the High Holiday chairs and building a storage area for them, endowing a new playground, contributing a significant amount of money to the Campaign for the Generations and recently refurbishing the Chapel. Our new project for raising funds for the synagogue is now our Open a Book, Open Your Mind program which Sisterhood sponsors along with the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School.

I could go on and on about all Har Zion Sisterhood has stood for and accomplished in our almost 95 years of existence but my time is running out.

From the earliest days of Har Zion Temple, the women of Sisterhood have immersed themselves in all aspects of synagogue life and dedicated ourselves to our responsibilities as Jewish women. We have worked to uphold the laws Moses read to the people, not just the elders or the men but to all the people, the laws of how we live our lives and treat others. The essence of Sisterhood is in these laws, in our commitment to Judaism, synagogue, community and each other.

We've come a long way baby from the 19 women who organized Har Zion Sisterhood to Fay Bernstein and Sylvia Stonberg opening the Ark to today where women lead services, count towards a minyan, and take leadership roles in all aspects of our synagogue and community. Our wonderful past has been a building block and will continue to inspire us as we move into the future as Har Zion Sisterhood.

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.

ADULT JEWISH LEARNING . . .

Har Zion After Dark

Each Wednesday night this year, HZT is the place to be for Jewish learning. Check out all of our offerings!

Wednesdays, May 1, 8, 15, 29

6:30-7:30 PM (early session)

Dr. Michael Schatz

Part 2: History of Jewish Philadelphia: Jewish Neighborhoods in Philadelphia

With a recap of Part 1, we will trace the patterns of migration of the children of Jewish immigrants as they moved out of South Philadelphia toward Strawberry Mansion, West Philly, Wynnefield, and Logan. Then we will delve into the "Third Settlement" – neighborhoods close to the edge of the city that were built up after the second World War. We'll look at the evolution of these communities, and discuss the new realities of outer ring suburbanization, resettlement of the city, and the impact of immigration from the former Soviet Union, the resurgence of Orthodox Judaism, and Jewish rise to prominence in politics and philanthropy.

Dr. Michael Schatz is a career Jewish educator and teaches in the Jane Fishman Grinberg Religious School. He is a past president of the Jewish Educators Assembly and gives tours and speaks about the history of Jewish Philadelphia, managing a Facebook page called "Philadelphia Jewish History Tours."

7:45-8:45 PM (later session)

Rabbi Ira Flax

Revolt and Redemption; the Rise of Rabbinic Judaism from 200 BCE-200 CE

Week 1 – Hanukkah, Maccabees and the Book of Daniel

Week 2 – Hasmonaeans, Hyrcanus and Rome

Week 3 – Herod, Josephus, and Masada

Week 4 – Bar Kochba, Betar and Hanukkah

Learning through the Week

Talmud with Rabbi Sarra Lev, PhD

Mondays, 11:15 AM

This course asks the overarching question – what is the Talmud trying to tell us about shame/shaming?

Rabbi Shawn and the Search for God

Mondays, 12:15 PM

Together we will wrestle with the meaning and religious concepts that affect us as individuals and as a people.

Experience the Joys of Yiddish with Gerry Spector

Tuesdays, May 14, 28; June 11, 10 AM and 5 PM

This session the focus will be on the works of Yiddish poet and songwriter, Mordkhe Gebirtig.

Parashat Hashavuah for the Sandwich Generation with Rabbi Shawn

Wednesdays at 11 AM

Rabbi Shawn will briefly summarize the parasha. He will then bring one or more contemporary interpretations of the text for us to study and discuss. This class is designed for the "Sandwich Generation" student.

Popular Commentaries of Genesis with Rabbi Ira Flax

Thursdays at 10 AM

We will study the commentaries found in the Hertz Chumash, the Etz Hayim Chumash, and the commentaries of modern biblical scholars to deepen our understanding of the first book of the Bible.

Current Events with Norman Einhorn

Thursdays, May 2, 16, 11:15 AM - 12:15 PM

John Marks, MD COLORECTAL SURGEON

Whether you need a screening, initial consult or second opinion, the team at Lankenau Medical Center, part of Main Line Health, is known for its expertise in colorectal care. A heritage built by Dr. John Marks—one of the world’s foremost colorectal surgeons whose experience includes more than 3,000 minimally invasive colorectal procedures—and his father before him, whose techniques remain the gold standard in colorectal surgery. What’s more, with his partner Dr. Henry Schoonyoung, sphincter preservation here at Lankenau is achieved 93 percent of the time vs. the national average of 40 to 60 percent. Which means most of our patients avoid a permanent colostomy bag.

So whatever your colorectal concerns, let’s face them together. Here at Lankenau Medical Center. Visit mainlinehealth.org/markscolorrectal or call 610.645.9093
