Installation, a Funny Word

Message from Rabbi Haaz

While “installation” may seem a more appropriate word for a light fixture than a human being, an installation is essentially the celebration of a new partnership between a community and its rabbi.

It is an opportunity to commit to one another, to dream together about what a synagogue community could be, and to appreciate the shared years to come. At the Installation on Sunday, November 17, we will consider what it means to be in a congregant-rabbi relationship and how our spiritual home will best help us navigate our lives over the coming decades.

To enrich our conversation, we will welcome Dr. Arnold Eisen, Chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and Rabbi Adam Kligfeld, a dear colleague and mentor. In addition to his 12 years at the Jewish Theological Seminary, the fountainhead of the Conservative Movement, Chancellor Eisen speaks from a social sciences background and offers unique insight into the evolving landscape of the American Jewish community.

Rabbi Kligfeld, Senior Rabbi at Temple Beth Am in Los Angeles, is a mensch, a scholar, and a visionary who has received wide recognition for establishing his synagogue as a model for innovative and engaging prayer. We will

Har Zion's Multifaith Initiative

Message from Allyson Zacharoff

What would the world look like if people of different religions got along? What would it look like if they not only got along, but they were friends? And what would it look like if they were not only friends, but they had such respect for the others’ traditions that they would stand in solidarity with their sisters and brothers of different faiths in an uncertain world at an uncertain time?

I know it may be hard to see sometimes, but this type of religious harmony exists. There are people around the world committed to multifaith dialogue, that is, bringing people together across lines of different, to learn about the other, and so increase understanding and respect. This is the field I have worked in for several years, and I am very excited to work at Har Zion to help build up more interfaith programming at the shul – for multifaith families in the community, for those who want to learn about other traditions, for anyone who wants to meet people of other faiths, and more. There is already incredible work going on in the Philadelphia area, and we are excited to bring Har Zion into that fold.

For those of you whom I have not yet met, my name is Allyson Zacharoff. I am a rabbinical student at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College in Wyncote, and I have been working in this field since 2012. I grew up as the Jewish child of an interfaith marriage, and so

CELEBRATING HANUKKAH . . .

The Miracle of Hanukkah

The origin of Hanukkah is the celebration of the recapture and rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem by Judah Maccabee and his followers after their revolt against the Syrian-Greeks. The military victory leading to this rededication (or hanukkah) was considered a miracle. One piece of the rededication of the Temple that became central to our understanding of Hanukkah is the lighting of the menorah. Later sources – less fond of the military miracle and the people behind it – identify a miracle of oil lasting for eight days, long enough to produce a new supply.

The story of the oil may have arisen because the rabbis were not fond of celebrating a military victory or of celebrating the victors! While the Maccabees fought a war of liberation against foreign oppression, they also fought a war against Jews who had assimilated into the culture of the Greeks. These Hellenized Jews were also a part of the religious establishment, and the Maccabees were virulently purist in their orientation. While we may appreciate their efforts in the war against their Greek overlords, many of us are more ambivalent about how they treated other Jews, especially since most of us are assimilated into the dominant American culture now.

In the last century or so, the Maccabees' reputation has been rehabilitated, becoming the paradigm of the physically strong and successful Jews, so we have named athletic teams and competitions after them.

When we light our candles each evening, we acknowledge the miracles that God performed in those days and also in our time. Therefore, we are instructed to light our candles where others can see them: to publicize the miracle. We are spreading the light – literally and figuratively. As we reach the darkest time of the year, we recognize that we have the opportunity, and perhaps obligation, to spread light throughout our communities and our world.

! שמח אורים חג Happy Festival of Lights!

How to Light Hanukkah Candles

Sunday, December 22 to Sunday, December 29

(Light Hanukkah candles before Shabbat candles)

Light the shammash candle first. Use it to light the other candles. On the first evening of Hanukkah, Sunday, December 22, place one candle on the far right as you face the hanukkiyah (the Hanukkah candelabrum). On the second night and on each succeeding night place the candle for that evening to the left of the candle which preceded it.

Light the newest candle first and then continue lighting the candles from left to right. On Friday evening, December 27, the Hanukkah candles are kindled before the Shabbat candles, and on Saturday night, December 28, the Hanukkah candles are kindled after Havdalah, which marks the conclusion of Shabbat.

Before lighting the candles, the following berakhah (blessing) is recited:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.

Barukh attah adonai eloheinu melekh ha-olam asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel hanukkah.

Praised are You Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, Whose commandments add holiness to our lives and Who commanded us to kindle Hanukkah lights.

Begin to light the candles while reciting the second berakhah:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שְׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ בַּיָּמִים הָהֵם בְּזִמְנֵי הַזֶּה.

Barukh attah adonai eloheinu melekh ha-olam she-asah nissim la-avoteinu bayamim hahem ba-zman hazeh.

Praised are You Adonai, our God, Sovereign of the Universe, Who performed miracles for our ancestors long ago at this season.

On the first night of Hanukkah only, we recite shehe-heyanu

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שְׁהַחֲיֵנוּ וְקִיְּמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזִמְנֵי הַזֶּה.

Barukh attah adonai eloheinu melekh ha-olam sheheheyanu v'kiyemanu v'higi'anu la-zman ha-zeh.

Praised are You Adonai, our God, Sovereign of the Universe, Who has given us life, sustained us, and allowed us to reach this time.

learned the value of religious diversity from a young age. Once I knew there were people working on dialogue professionally, I was hooked. After college, I received a fellowship to study in Rome at a Catholic university, where I studied with priests and nuns. I later spent time in Jerusalem studying in yeshiva and working on interfaith projects in that area, before returning to the United States to study the Qur'an at an interfaith graduate school. I have also been fortunate to attend different conferences internationally, meeting people of all ages who are committed to shifting the narrative from one of hate and distrust, to one of understanding and respect.

There is a role we all can play in this work. We as Jews are called to repair the world, and this is not a burden we can take lightly. In a world so broken, we are called by our tradition to do our share in repairing that brokenness in whatever ways we can – and taking that step forward to build relationships across lines of difference is one critical area in which to do it. Whether you have never spoken in depth with someone of a different faith, or you have been married to someone of a different faith for fifty years, you are most welcome to participate in the multifaith initiatives we are building at and around Har Zion. Please feel free to reach out to me at any time at azacharoff@harziontemple.org, and I look forward to meeting many of you soon!

Wednesdays, Nov 6, 13, 20, 27, Dec 4 and 11, 11 AM

An in-depth, multi-faceted study of our Shabbat liturgy. By “unpacking” the many layers of meaning and commentary, by delving into the history, background and lives of the great intellectual giants who wrote our prayers, we gain a keener understanding of their meaning and of the values and ideals inherent in them. Through this sharper knowledge and understanding, we discover what we stand for as Jews.

In prior years, we covered the Birchot HaShachar, P'sukei D'Zimrah, the Shma and its Blessings and the Amidah (Shmoneh Esrai). We begin this semester with Kreat HaTorah (Torah Reading service) and Haftarah, the Musaf service (additional service) and the concluding prayers for Shabbat morning,

Join us, learn and study with us so that you can connect more readily and easily to our heritage and keep our legacy alive and thriving.

Are you dealing with aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas? If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us!

Archaeology and the Bible: What Do We Know?
What Can We Do?

Dr. Ely Levine

Scholar-in-Residence and Ritual Coordinator

Archaeology has the potential to teach us a lot about people who lived long ago. It also has the potential to be misused to confirm preconceived notions about the past. Since the Bible is such a polarizing document, archaeology has been mustered by some seeking to "prove" the Bible and by others seeking to discredit the Bible.

Dr. Ely Levine, who earned his doctorate in Biblical studies and archaeology, will speak about his experience in the field, and how it informs conversations between these two fields.

Among his many duties at Har Zion, Dr. Levine leads the morning and evening minyanim, reads Torah, provides day-to-day kashrut supervision for the synagogue, tutors our Bar/Bat Mitzvah children and guides them in writing divrei Torah, and offers monthly Shabbat teachings from the bimah.

Multifaith Parents and Families: Navigating the Holidays

We warmly invite our multifaith families with children to join us on Thursday, December 5 at 7:30 PM for an evening with Rabbinic Intern Allyson Zacharoff about how we can navigate the holidays from our family's different traditions. This can be a particular challenge in December for some, but is something diverse families face all year round. This will be an open space of some learning and a lot of discussion, as we talk about ways different families may choose to handle this question, and how we can make sure that these choices are made with intention and show honor to all.

We have formed a new closed Facebook group to discuss the new Multifaith Engagement program, and welcome your comments. Please email Norman Einhorn, neinhorn@harziontemple.org, for an invitation to join this closed group.

We are interested in who will be in the room, and so are requesting RSVPs with your family's different faith traditions so we can best prepare for the discussion. Please email Allyson Zacharoff, azacharoff@harziontemple.org or Norman Einhorn, neinhorn@harziontemple.org.

For any questions or concerns, please reach out at any time: azacharoff@harziontemple.org.

SISTERHOOD . . .

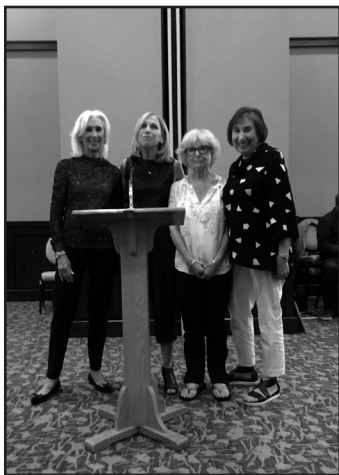

Sisterhood Needs Your Help

Message from Lynne Landsburg, Sisterhood President

Do you want to live longer, feel better, and lower your blood pressure? Sisterhood has the means for helping you achieve all three. VOLUNTEER! Studies have shown that volunteering in any capacity is not only good for whoever and whatever you are helping but has also proven to benefit the volunteer's mental and physical health. Volunteers are needed in every organization and Sisterhood is no exception. We have a core group of women who can always be counted on to help out where or when help is needed, but they are not enough. An hour here, a few hours there can make a big difference.

Are you good at and enjoy decorating? Come help for an hour and decorate the Sukkah. Do you like beautiful things and helping people? Give the Gift Shop a few hours a week of your time. Can you come in a half hour early for a lunch and program and help set the tables? Do you like to discuss all the latest movies, TV shows and good restaurants? Come help us stuff the mailings for our events and get informed. Contact myself or any of the Vice Presidents and let us know how or when you can help. We are always happy and grateful for any help you can give us.

Here are some pictures from our wonderful Opening Dinner where we caught up with friends and were entertained by magician Ari Felber. A great time was had by all.

Sharing Shabbat with Family and Friends

Message from Debbie Folz,
Director of Early Childhood Education

I must admit I am not a big fan of the cold. I am just like a bear and would like to hibernate for the winter months until I thaw out in the Spring. With the cold weather season approaching, most people think twice about going out besides the typical errands, school drop offs and normal obligations. Plus going to dinner is so expensive today and the price of gas to go anywhere – YIKES! So, I have a great idea that doesn't have to cost a lot of money, you can be warm and cozy and the added bonus, it's a great activity for family and friends. This activity happens every Friday night – Shabbat!

Friday night is the perfect time to relax with family, invite some friends over and enjoy a good meal. Even God knew that a day of rest was necessary when creating the world. We live such hectic lives between work, carpooling, and volunteering and meeting the needs of our families. Shabbat should be considered our "vacation day." If you are unsure about how to celebrate Shabbat or you would like some new ideas, there are several resources out there to assist you. Check out the PJ Library website: <https://pjlibrary.org/shabbat>. You will be able to download songs, videos, art ideas and all the related blessings. At Har Zion, we have several resources right in our building. Our Rudofker Library and the Har Zion Gift Shop have a really nice selection of books and CDs for children of all ages. Not only does Har Zion offer a variety of adult and children's programs, but our team of clergy are always eager to offer ideas or help on celebrating Shabbat.

So now I am asking you to invite a family over, try a Shabbat Dinner Club where you take turns hosting or make it really easy and have a Shabbat pot luck dinner. Making challah with your children, lighting the candles and discussing what you are thankful for can connect your children to a life-long love of Judaism. It is well worth braving the cold and coming to Har Zion to enjoy Shabbat with family and friends, whether at Shabbat Sha-Blue Jeans the first Friday of the month or Tot Shabbat, the third Saturday of the month... we look forward to seeing you!

Prachim class – Torah lesson with Rabbi Haaz

To my Har Zion family and friends... there are no words to express our gratitude and feelings of love that we received and continue to receive from our Har Zion community during this devastating time in our lives. Your cards, meals, donations and hugs have helped to give us the strength to go on, and to always know that the memories of Scott will never be forgotten.

– Debbie, Bob, Rebecca and Erica Folz

TIKKUN OLAM . . .

Message from Melissa Sayer and Norma Dworkin, Co-Chairs
 This month we asked members to share their thoughts about doing Tikkun Olam and why they participate.

Here are some responses:

I participate in Tikkun Olam because (in a small way) I feel I am helping needy people.

I feel that I am helping people who are less fortunate and I feel it's a mitzvah.

I feel connected to the people who are on the committee and that we share the same values and goals.

It's a wonderful feeling to feel useful and the joy I feel when I can bring a smile to someone in need is priceless!

Participating in Tikkun Olam is a chance for me to do good in the world by appreciating the blessing God has given me and passing them on. For those in need of food, I cook and deliver, for those in need of active Jewish Holiday involvement, I build a sukkah or serve a Rosh Hashana and Passover meal. More importantly, I interact with those in need as much as possible, knowing I am the one who is being helped and doubly blessed.

Doing the work of Tikkun Olam makes me feel more engaged in the community...and makes me feel more human!

Everyone needs a hug! It can be physical, emotional, or spiritual... and both the giver and receiver share the connection. Whether it's a warm meal or a cozy blanket, our community (& beyond) needs more hugs!

Har Zion Temple Tikkun Olam is about...Joy – the joy of doing for others, Connection – the connection with other congregants to achieve common goals, Mitzvot – participating in doing mitzvot, Fulfillment – the fulfillment of helping others while remaining anonymous.

I participate because I want to do worthwhile things to help the community.

Har Zion congregants hosted a delicious luncheon at Inglis House, where residents and their families and volunteers participated in a joyous and meaningful service led by Cantor Naomi Hersh.

Hazzan Vogel leads Rosh Hashanah Services at Saunders House.

Please consider joining us at any of the following events:

Volunteers will be needed.

Residents and Har Zion volunteers decorated, schmoozed, and enjoyed decorating the card room at Brith Sholom House. It became a lovely Sukkah while all had fun!!

Saunders House volunteers along with a resident. We're all smiles showing off the space we "transformed" into a sukkah!!

Join Hazzan Eliot & Karen Vogel and the Cantors Assembly for A Jewish Musical Journey through

ITALY

Rome | Florence | Venice
June 22 — July 2, 2020

For over two thousand years, Jewish communities have existed in Italy. Our ancestors settled here during the pre-Christian Roman era and, through periods of prosperity and times of persecution, have held a continuous presence until today. We'll explore these roots and routes – historic, religious and, of course, musical! Join us as we sing, study, sightsee and celebrate together in inviting, intriguing Italy.

On our adventure together we will...

Delight in Jewish Music with an operatic Italian flare, featuring the soaring voices of the Cantors Assembly.

- Explore Italian history through a Jewish prism, with scholarly presentations by noted scholar Prof. Stephen Berk throughout.
- Enjoy a gondola ride through Venice, visit Rome's old Jewish Ghetto in the Trastevere area, tour the gorgeous Duomo of Florence...and so much more!

Full itinerary, pricing and registration at: secure.ayelet.com/CA2020Italy.aspx
Please choose the Deluxe category when registering to join this group.
