A Touch of Sweetness

Message from Rabbi Haaz

Although most people understand the High Holy Day season to be the most stressful and chaotic time for rabbis, I consider the opportunity to stand in front of the entire community, gathered together on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, to be one of the great privileges of being a rabbi. Each year, I am blessed with the opportunity to face the community and look out at all of the people who have come together to say goodbye to one year and hello to the next. As I scan the room and reflect on each face, I consider how blessed I am to share their triumphs and losses, sadnesses and joys. Because I have shared these moments of mourning and celebration, I think about the particular prayers that each person might offer on these days when our hearts are most open to God and God's heart is most open to us. This year, as I face the Har Zion community on the High Holy Days for the first time, I will not yet know the faces in the room. I will not yet know the history of your family, the experiences that brought you to be where you are and who you are, or what occupies your thoughts on this particular Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. When I look out on our Har Zion congregation during this High Holy Day season, I will see new faces and the potential for new relationships. I will be eager to learn about your experiences in 5778 and what you anticipate

Message from the President

As I begin my second year as President at Har Zion Temple, I want to thank all of you for your constant support and encouragement as we embarked on a year of challenge and transition. I look back and recognize all of the changes that our synagogue has endured during these many months – changes in senior staff, changes in programming and changes within our congregation. Through it all, we have stood together, when at times it was not always easy. With growth, comes opportunity. We have managed to overcome with strength and I am enthusiastic for what the coming year brings.

I am excited for Rabbi Haaz as he joins us as our new Senior Rabbi. We welcome him, along with his wife, Bonnie Rose and their daughters Sadie and Sophie into our Har Zion community. Rabbi Haaz will bring a new energy as he gets to know us. Please be patient as there are a lot of us to get to know! We will all work together to begin a new chapter at our shul.

Har Zion Temple is a strong community, based on its members, our Clergy, our staff, our lay leadership and its congregants. We had an incredibly successful Patrons Event, "An Evening with The Capital Steps," another popular "Open a Book... Open Your Mind" series, our monthly Joy of Shabbat and Shabbat Sha-Blue Jeans dinners, along with our Milton Pomerantz Interactive Torah Study, Cook for a Friend, Tot Shabbat, Talmud Classes, Tisch and Men's Club Minyannaires, just to name a few. We have an opportunity for learning, for connecting, for sharing and for participating in the many activities here at Har Zion Temple. Through these programs, we are able to study, grow, benefit and connect. It's all about the connections.

Message from Hazzan Vogel

The acronym of the Hebrew month of Elul, leading into the High Holiday season (Ani L'dodi, V'dodi Li – "I am for my beloved and my beloved is for me") is a powerful incentive for us to re-examine our relationships. The Bible frequently uses husband/wife language when describing God's relationship to the Jewish people. Brides may remember reciting the phrase Ani L'dodi while standing under a huppah. A prayer recited at each of the five services on Yom Kippur, Ki Anu Amecha, is an extended poetic expression of the idea, "We are your spouse, You are our beloved." In a joyous melody we assert, "We are your people and You are our God; we are your children and You are our parent, we are Your heritage and You are our destiny, etc."

for 5779. With an open heart, I look forward to sharing our first High Holy Days together and to getting to know you over the coming year. May the year 5779 bring us all blessings of health, joy, and acts of kindness, and may each engagement with our Har Zion community add a touch of sweetness to our lives.

Shanah Tovah Umtukah, a good and sweet new year to you and to your loved ones and friends.

President (continued from page 1)

While we are a congregation of many demographics, we all have one thing in common – our love and passion for Har Zion Temple. Through that love and passion, we are able to work together to engage our members and to further our commitments in various ways. We are all blessed to be part of this historical, traditional and generational shul where each of us has a story of why we choose to belong. We've shared simhas; we've shared sorrows; we've shared learning; we've shared connecting. These are bonds that we have created together. We cannot do it alone. We need one another to continue our path so that Har Zion remains and continues to be a staple in the community and around the world.

Our Officers, lay leaders, volunteers, clergy and staff are hard at work to make our congregation the best it can be. Try a new class; volunteer for a committee, learn a new prayer – we welcome your faces throughout the year. Challenge yourself to do something different this year; think outside the box. Try something outside your 'comfort zone.' We are here to help!

Are we doing enough? Are we engaging our members enough? What can we do to keep you involved? Please feel free to reach out to me any time and I am happy to talk with you.

As we reflect on a new year, let's all make it a point to say hello to someone new, invite someone to sit with you at Kiddush or for a Shabbat meal. Let's continue our work in making Har Zion the best that it can be.

As the High Holidays approach, I hope that you all had an enjoyable and restful summer. I wish for all of you a year of good health, blessings, love, peace, family and connection. Let Har Zion be that place that you can come home to. I, along with Hope, Bryan and Brittany wish you a happy, healthy and sweet new year! L'Shana Tova.

– Lee S. Kirschner

The Sandwich Generation typically refers to those that are sandwiched between the needs of their children and those of their aging parents. However, this group is not limited to these issues. If you are between the ages of 45ish and 65ish, we will focus on topics that are relevant today. Are you dealing with, aging parents, the loss of your parents, family illness, and their health, adult children, and dating just to name a few? What does the Torah teach us about our responsibilities in these areas?

If you want to be a part of a study group to discuss contemporary issues, please join us! We will vary between meeting in the evenings, mornings and in the afternoons. At times, we will have a guest speaker and at other times meetings will be lay-led. If you would like to receive information about upcoming programs, please email Patty Grobman - pgrobman@harziontemple.org.

The term was used by the Musar movement to refer to efforts to further ethical and spiritual discipline.*

Wednesday nights (once a month)

October 3, November 7, 8:45-10 PM

Join Rabbis Shawn & Moriah as we study Rabbinic Family Life and Relationships from the lore of the Talmud. Classes will be in a congregant's home. Sometimes we will study together and sometimes we will divide the sexes for independent study.

The foundation of a marriage, or of any healthy relationship between any two consenting adults, has some form of reciprocity – the two parties are bound to one another through mutual obligations. The approach of the New Year is a time for us to think about our various relationships – those with God, with others, and even with the groups of which we are a part. We can ask ourselves, “What are my expectations of others and what do they expect of me?”

Sitting in the pews during High Holidays there will certainly be those who are pondering their relationships with their synagogues. At a time when less than one third of all American Jews belong to synagogues, many are re-examining the extent to which they want to obligate themselves to membership. Questions of reciprocity (am I getting what I need) versus supporting an institution from which I may ask for very little in return are bound to arise. The answers to these questions are, of course, highly subjective and personal.

We live today at a time when most of the institutions of American Jewry are undergoing rapid change. Many of them, such as the congregations of the liberal branches of Judaism, founded in the decades just prior to WWII and shortly thereafter, saw their heyday when the Baby Boomers came of age. Their power and influence over those belonging to the Gen’Xers, Millennials and beyond have seen a steady decline. The ways in which their spiritual longings, need for community, and desires for religious expression will be met, is too difficult to say. Those who maintain their affiliations with synagogues are likely to see continuing evolution and/or re-invention of these institutions.

As we welcome the year 5779, and as our congregation gets acquainted with a new rabbi who is clearly not a Baby Boomer, we’re given a fresh opportunity to consider our relationships. Speaking as a Baby Boomer, I can’t help but recall the immortal words of President John F. Kennedy’s inaugural address, which seem so apropos for this moment. “Ask not what your country can do for you – ask what you can do for your country.” Whether with people or with synagogues, ultimately, the quality of all relationships is dependent upon our investment in them.

Together with my family I wish all of you a Shana Tova!

Reengaging & Rediscovering...

ReJEWvinating!

by Jay Gorodetzer, Vice President,
Membership and External Affairs

When I was young, I questioned everything. My grandfather used to call me “The Lawyer” although I wasn’t out of grade school. My Jewish education, however, was one thing that I did not question. I went to Hebrew School and services as I was supposed to. If there was one question I recall from those days, it was, “Do I have to go?”

Like others I know, I became disinterested in Hebrew School and services from my early teens until my college years. During my freshman year at Penn State, I became active at Penn State Hillel, enjoying the many social activities and community service opportunities that were offered. The experience was extremely rewarding, especially since I met my wife at a Hillel social.

However, it wasn’t until our son, Sam, was a student in the Noreen Cook Center for Early Childhood Education at HZT that I realized he was getting a better Jewish education than I had. I needed to find a way to keep up with him, but I didn’t have the courage or confidence in myself to start learning again. I felt like I was too far behind.

Very early in my career as a photographer at the Philadelphia Inquirer my boss sent me to a Photography Workshop at the University of Missouri. The overarching theme was “Show Truth with a Camera.” It was there that I learned that in order to make my pictures authentic and meaningful I needed to really understand what I was photographing. I became a better photographer once I had a solid understanding of the story. With that discovery, I decided to learn more about Judaism so that I could have a better understanding of prayers and, perhaps, get more out of services.

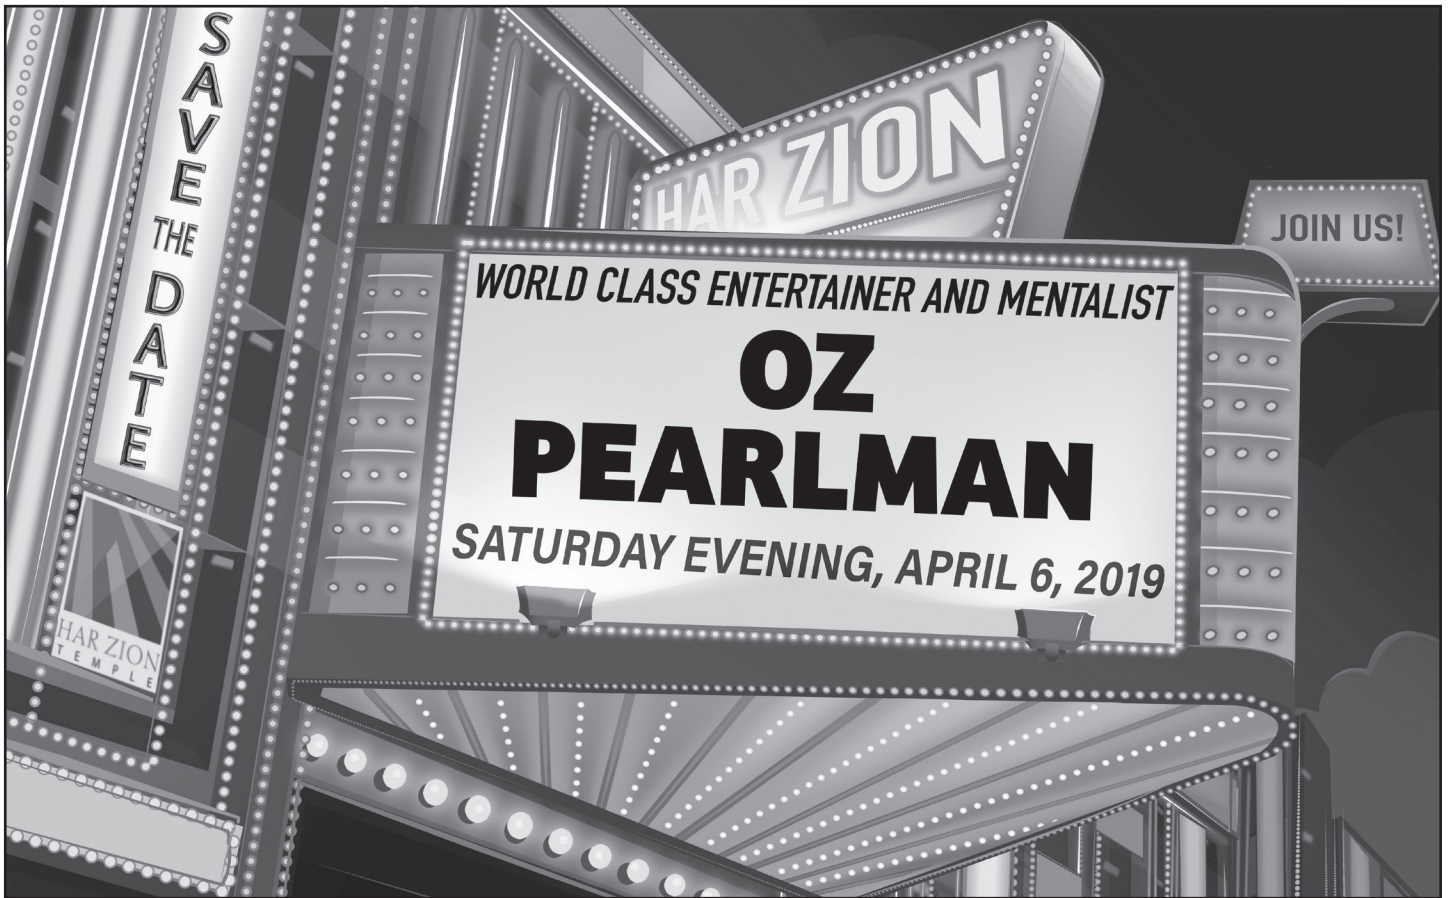

I was always under the impression that Judaism was what it was... one recipe. But I was wrong. I found that some followed the recipe to a T while other left some ingredient out. Still, others added extra ingredients. People should feel free to alter the recipe to suit their individual tastes. With that in mind, I began examining, asking questions, and taking a class taught by Rabbi Shawn in order to try to find meaning in Judaism. I’m interested in learning about the meaning and origin of our prayers in order to get more out of Shabbat services.

I know there are many here at HZT who shared my interest in reconnecting to Judaism. Some are looking for spirituality while others struggle to understand the purpose of prayers. I invite you to join our community in whatever way fits your needs. Find an area that interests you and let’s support each other as we learn and grow together.

One of my goals for the upcoming year is to help you be Jewish however and wherever is meaningful to you. Whether we study together, pray together, offer assistance to others or share our simchas, the key is that WE DO THIS TOGETHER. Judaism is not a spectator sport. I invite you to join my family and me as we discover and rediscover the meaning of “Being Jewish.”

From my family to yours, I wish you a Happy, Sweet New Year. L’Shana Tova!

“Say Little, Do Much, and Greet Everyone with a Pleasant Countenance”

Message from Charlotte Muchnick

This teaching, from the Ethics of the Fathers, is one that our Caring Connection members have taken to heart.

In the past year, we've kept quietly busy, trying to meet the needs of Congregants in their good times and difficult ones.

We've made calls, written Simha or Condolence cards, we've offered pareve vegetable soup, made in our Har Zion kitchen, we've shopped and delivered Shabbat and other meals and we've helped to find rides for those in need – all done with an understanding heart and a pleasant smile.

Would you like to take part in our mitzvot? Come help us plan for another productive year for the Caring Connection!

Our next two meetings are on Thursday, September 27 and Thursday, October 18 at 7 PM. And watch your Bulletins and emails for our Congregation-wide event.

Be a part of our Caring Connection – saying little, doing much and with a responsive, friendly countenance!

A Sweet, Happy and Healthy New Year!

June Blood Drive

Message from Shirley Swinger

Thanks to my able co-chair, Marilyn Becker, the following people made calls for our June Blood Drive at Har Zion Temple: Barbara Berkowitz, Barbara Boroff, Ruth Chacker, Janice Katz, Charlotte Muchnick, Gretel Posner, Judy Weinberger, Michael Solomon, Judy Shrager.

The turnout was not our best – Red Cross took 22 pints from our donors. Hopefully, our Har Zion members understand the importance of giving blood and will volunteer at our next drive which will take place on Martin Luther King Day (Monday, January 21, 2019) next year.

EDUCATION . . .

Message from Rabbi Shawn, Director of Lifelong Learning

Summer time and the livin' is easy!
 "It just seems to fly by so fast." "Where did those days go?" "School shopping already?"
 You would think that with the length of summer days we would perceive summer as moving slowly - but that just is not the case. These two months just speed by in the blink of an eye and preparations for school and the Tishri holidays are already in our minds by early August. This year we are inviting you to our first ever EXTEND THE SUMMER SHABBAT DINNER. Come in your camp swag, your comfy "down the shore" garb or even your hiking gear from the Poconos - Friday, September 7, beginning at 5 PM for kid-friendly activities. There will be services, a BBQ, games, and fun for the whole family but most importantly it is a great way to reconnect with all your HZT friends and family after summer vacation. Check your emails for more information.

Madregot ArtFest 70 November 15-18

This fall at Har Zion, we welcome you to a fantastic art show and sale that brings together several of the core values that we hold dear. First and foremost is the idea that Jewish education is crucial for every child in the community. To this end, Har Zion Temple created the Madregot Program for Special Needs education which provides the resources needed to best serve all of our students. Next is Israel. The Jewish state, now celebrating its 70th year, is a miraculous occurrence in our lifetimes. It is an incubator of social, religious, and technical innovation for the Jewish people all over the world. This November, the Madregot committee is hosting ArtFest 70, a show and sale of Israeli art, and we hope you will come out to enjoy all the festivities and the art. Every sale will benefit our special needs education students and Israeli artists to boot.

SISTERHOOD . . .

Message from Sisterhood President, Lynne Landsburg

Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot are upon us once again. As some people like to say: the holidays are never on time. They are either too early or too late. However true this may be, it is never too early or too late to join Sisterhood and participate in all we have to offer.

Sisterhood is the backbone of our congregation. We offer a wide variety of programming, educational opportunities, synagogue and community outreach and multiple ways to volunteer and get involved. Whether attending a program, participating in Sisterhood Shabbat, arranging cookies for Kiddush, volunteering or shopping in the gift shop, we are maintaining and supporting sisterhood and Har Zion Temple.

My personal involvement in sisterhood began 25 years ago after finishing my time as HSA president. It was the next step in continuing my support and involvement with Har Zion Temple. I have held numerous positions over the 25 years from chairing events, financial secretary, treasurer, vice president and budget chair, among others. Being a member of Sisterhood and getting involved has offered me the opportunity to meet and get to know wonderful women of all ages who have made my life richer and fuller. You too can enjoy all Sisterhood has to offer. Just come and see for yourself.

My husband Bill, our son Mitch and I wish you all a Shana Tova U'metukah, a sweet and happy New Year.

HAZAAC Har Zion Active Adults Club

Things That Change and Things That Don't

by Gerald Spector, HAZAAC Chair

As we begin the new year 5779 we recognize that many things will change from last year and yet many things will not. Among the things that will change are that each of us will be a year older, our country will elect a new congress, and our congregation will have a new spiritual leader. Among the things that will remain the same is the Har Zion Active Adults Club (HAZAAC).

Har Zion Active Adults Club (HAZAAC) will continue to serve the needs and interests of members of our community who, although they may be retired or over 55, are young at heart and in spirit. Our events provide good fellowship, good fun, a delicious meal, an entertaining educational program, and an opportunity for our members to socialize. HAZAAC is open to anyone; Har Zion members of all ages and their relatives and friends, who may not themselves be Har Zion members, are welcome.

Our opening event will be a "Meet and Greet" luncheon at noon on Wednesday, October 17 to welcome Rabbi Haaz and his family to Har Zion. In the spirit of John F Kennedy's inaugural address, we will have the opportunity to ask not only what Rabbi Haaz can do for us but also what we can do for him and his family to make them feel at home in our congregation. Please note that reservations are required for this luncheon and should be made by Friday, October 12. Please call Harriet Schiffer at (610) 667-5000 to make reservations.

Other HAZAAC events planned for this year include:

A review and discussion of the novel Eternal Life by Dara Horn

A program about Birobidzhan, the autonomous Jewish state in Russia, and support for it by the JDC (Joint Distribution Committee)

A concert by Hazzan Eliot Vogel

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.

John Marks, MD COLORECTAL SURGEON

Whether you need a screening, initial consult or second opinion, the team at Lankenau Medical Center, part of Main Line Health, is known for its expertise in colorectal care. A heritage built by Dr. John Marks—one of the world’s foremost colorectal surgeons whose experience includes more than 3,000 minimally invasive colorectal procedures—and his father before him, whose techniques remain the gold standard in colorectal surgery. What’s more, with his partner Dr. Henry Schoonyoung, sphincter preservation here at Lankenau is achieved 93 percent of the time vs. the national average of 40 to 60 percent. Which means most of our patients avoid a permanent colostomy bag.

So whatever your colorectal concerns, let’s face them together. Here at Lankenau Medical Center. Visit mainlinehealth.org/markscolorrectal or call 610.645.9093
